Westlake Group Asks State Probe Of Cost, Quality

By WILL E. THOMAS

Trustees of the Jefferson High School District favor a "thorough investigation" of "quality and expense of education" in the district as urged by a group of Westlake residents in Daly City. The Citizens' Steering Committee, headed by Dr. Sanford A. Marcus, late last week appealed to Governor Reagan for such a probe by the State Department of Education.

Trustees, meeting in their Westlake Shopping Center chambers Monday night, indicated they would welcome such an investigation.

In fact, they directed administrators to get word of their feelings to the governor Tuesday.

The district has been briming with controversy over location of a new high school.

Westlakers, north of Alemany Boulevard, first objected to boundary changes that would send their youngsters to Serramonte from Westmoor. Anti-busing was their theme, and they asked for a delay in the boundary decision, but their appeal was rejected.

Then, they attacked proposed double-sessions for one year at the Westmoor campus, first rejected by trustees, but later approved in modified form.

Next, the citizens' committee pleaded to trustees for a halt in Serramonte high school planning and construction, favoring instead addition to Westmoor.

Now, the group wants — if Serramonte must be built — the school to be an "academic" facility for selected top students.

It has also pledged itself as a sort of "watchdog" over board activities, with eyes trained on both quality and economics of district education.

Trustees and Supt. Edward Morgan have attempted to explain their moves throughout the controversy, ever since Morgan submitted a report and recommendations based on Stanford, University of California and faculty reports.

Westlakers claim they haven't been listened to.

Trustees assert the Westlakers haven't heard them properly, either.

The heartbreak that is affecting many American homes today is increasing at what law enforcement officials call an alarming rate with no end in sight.

This heartbreak is the "runaway child," the youth who has decided he or she can no longer communicate with the adult world and elects to seek opportunity and shelter elsewhere — normally is such havens as the Haight-Ashbury in San Francisco.

Most of these teen-age adventurers soon grow tired of this new found world and wander home to mend their broken fences and try once again to communicate with the adult world.

But this so-called communication gap between adult and youth is growing ever wider, according to many involved in the matter.

Oddly enough, this breakdown is affecting more girls than boys.

Daly City police captain David Hansen, father of three daughters ages 13, 17 and 19, has worked closely with what he calls this broadening problem for the past several years.

He feels his role as father of three teen-age daughters has been helpful in trying to understand this problem better and says that because of his children "I am better aware of

Outstanding Students Are Named

The eight Daly City students selected to receive the Outstanding Students Awards for 1968 were named today by Westmoor and Jefferson high schools.

The awards are an annual presentation given by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce, with students chosen by their respective school faculties.

This year will mark the ninth time the awards have been presented.

The students selected were:

Larry Diamond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Diamond, of 1015 Eighty-seventh Street.

Larry has a seven-semester cumulative grade point average of 3.97 and hopes to matriculate to Stanford University as a pre-med major. He is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation and a member of the Westmoor German Club, Science Club and Chess Club.

Larry has been a member and last fall was president of the Westmoor Math Club. As a senior he received the Bausch and Lomb Award as an outstanding science student and is the recipient of the Bank of America plaque in Science and Mathematics.

He worked last summer as a research assistant at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco and has been a member of the Pacific Music Society.

Donald Weiden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weiden, of 33 Westdale Avenue, also has a seven-semester cumulative grade point average of 3.97 and is currently serving as president of the Student Body at Westmoor. He was president of the Senior Class last fall.

Donald plans to attend Berkeley campus (UC) to pursue an interest in mathematics and science as a possible pre-engineering major. He has been a Life Member of the California Scholarship Federation and for three years has been a Boy's Block W member.

Last summer, Donald was sponsored by the American Legion as a Boy's State participant. As a juniot he earned the Annual Chemistry Award as the outstanding student and scored in the 8th decile in the annual Santa Clara Math contest. He is

$240,000 Embezzlement

Colma Resident, Veteran S.F. Bank Officer, Jailed

Floyd C. Morgan, 47, who has lived frugally for years at his home, 736 Larchmont Street, Colma spent Monday night in San Francisco County Jail as Bank of California auditors worked to trace a $240,000 shortage.

In the Bay area's second mysterious embezzlement case within months, there was no immediate clue to where large sums of money had gone.

Morgan surrendered to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Monday and was arraigned on charges of embezzling $15,000 of the missing funds.

He is an assistant vice president of the bank, and has been employed at its main office at 400 California Street, San Francisco. He is a 22-year employe.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Jerrold M. Ladar said a shortage was discovered in an audit last Thursday. Subsequent audits showed money had been disappearing since 1962, he added. Morgan was suspended Friday.

Ladar said he did not know what Morgan might have done with the money. He said Morgan had $10,000 in savings accounts but was not known for high living.

"There is a shortage so far of $240,000, portions of which have been traced to the joint checking account of the defendant and his wife," Ladar asserted.

Monday morning, Ladar said Morgan attempted to go to a safety deposit box, but when questioned by an auditor left the bank.

In the safety deposit box, the

Pageant Director Change In S.S.F. Following 'Rift'

By DON GRIERSON

South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce officials appointed a new director for the upcoming "Miss South San Francisco" Pageant this week, following an apparent rift between the chamber and Dolly Drew, director of the production for the past two years.

Chamber President William Borba and members of the Pageant Committee Tuesday announced the appointment of former assistant city manager James Sargen as pageant director.

Chamber officials gave no reason for the change ,and Mrs. Drew, the former Dolly Schumacher and herself a past "Miss South San Francisco," was not available for comment.

The Schumacher School of Theatrical Dance has directed the pageant for the past two years, and Mrs. Drew was in charge of next month's production until Tuesday's announcement.

Chamber Manager Jack Flynn said today the show will be presented May 25 as originally scheduled, and 16 girls have entered the pageant.

There will be a meeting between members of the chamber's pageant committee, headed by William Harr, the pageant entrants, and their parents tonight at Oliver's Restaurant, Flynn said.

He said the switch in pageant directors is not expected to significantly alter plans for the affair, "and we expect to present the same high quality show that has been presented in past years."

Bruno Park Rowdyism Is Attacked

San Bruno's police chief, Russell Cunningham, has ordered additional surveilance of activities in the city park.

The chief acknowledged the expanded park coverage Monday night after Councilman Don Risso expressed extreme concern over "hoodlums" and "rowdies" roaming the area.

"I'm not satisfied that we're getting any patrol in the park," Risso, the city's postmaster, declared.

He said conditions were "bad enough" at night, but "how about Sundays," referring to an incident this past weekend when a man was "squirted with wine from a hypodermic syringe."

"Are we going to tolerate this?" he asked.

He urged police to run "known hoodlums" out of the park, pointing out that parents "are afraid to go into the park even on Sunday afternoons."

Risso was advised police cannot run anyone out of the park, even if they are known hoodlums, unless they are violating a law.

Bruno Home Building Off

First-quarter construction valuation in San Bruno was considerably below the figures recorded for January through March of 1967.

Compilations provided by the San Bruno building inspection department show 103 permits were issued during that period this year, with a total valuation of $369,814.

This compares with the 115 permits totally $926,830 in the first three months last year.

Of the three-month total released this week, $188,555 was for the month of March, in which 38 permits were issued.

In contrast, 62 permits in March of 1967 yielded a valuation of $478,991.

Most of this year's March activity was in the new commercial category ($91,500), while the previous year saw a boom in new home construction, valued at $426,500.

There was no listing in the March 1968 new homes category.

WORK CREWS ARE in the process of repairing Westborough Boulevard in South San Francisco, and Public Works Director Louis Goss said the project will be completed within a few days. The road "rippled" several weeks ago after the base material became saturated with water.

a recipient of the Bank of America Certificate in math.

In addition to school activities he has been a member and officer of his church youth group and of Demolay. He was also selected as Junior Kiwanian of the Month in November.

Kathy Knowlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knowlton, of 101 Fairway Drive, has earned a seven-semester cumulative grade point average of 3.95.

During the fall semester at Westmoor she was a treasurer of the Student Body (and currently holds that office) and is a Life Member of the California Scholarship Federation.

Kathy is also editor of The Rampage, the school newspaper, and a recipient of the Most Valuable Staffer Award. She has been active in the Junior Statesmen and the Speech Club where she earned a first place honor during a debate tournament.

She has also served as a project chairman of the Easter Seal Society, Rehabilitation and Research Center for Crippled Adults of San Mateo County. Last summer she operated a concession at the Olympic Club Golf Course, and is presently employed as a salesgirl at W.T. Grant Company.

Kathy is a semi-finalist in the California State Scholarship Conest and plans to major in sociology and earn a teaching credential at San Francisco State College or the University of California San Francisco.

Betty Hodgekiss, daughter of John Hodgekiss, of 138 Santa Paula, has earned a seven-semester cumulative grade point average of 3.93 and is a Life Member of the California Scholarship Federation serving as president of that body last fall.

She is currently Commissioner of Clubs for the Student Body Association and a member of the Westmoor Math Club.

At the annual University of Santa Clara Mathematics Contest Betty scored in the top decile and also received a Letter of Commendation for her performance in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Examination.

For the past two years Betty has been a math tutor along with being a member of the Westmoor marching band and member of the Modern Music Masters. In addition to her school activities, she is a member of the church youth group and has served as president of that group.

Betty will receive Honors at Entrance at the University of California (Berkeley) and is a semi-finalist in their Regents' Scholarship Competition. She is also a semi-finalist in the California State Scholarship Program and plans to matriculate to UC Berkeley and major in math.

Barbara Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Lee of 859 Templeton Avenue, is the Valedictorian of the 1968 class and had only one "b" in her high school career. She has been active in the Jefferson High School Model U.N. and Model Senate, the Spanish Club, Girls' Athletic Association and the Senior Pep Club.

Barbara won an award in a Mathematics Association of America contest and has been active as a math tutor both at the elementary and high school levels. She has also been working part-time in the Wells Fargo Bank, and plans to attend San Francisco State for her teaching credential.

Marian Sawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Sawyer of 446 Niantic Avenue, has been the Senior Class Treasurer, president of the Spanish Club, a Girls' Block J member (because of her many activities in the Girls' Athletic Association), secretary of the California Scholarship Federation and a participant in many other such activities at Jefferson High School.

She was also named as the Certificate Winner in Laboratory Science for the Bank of America and plans to attend San Francisco State to continue her education.

Adoracion Tanchoco, daughter of Mrs. Angelita Tanchoco, of 232 Hillcrest Drive, was the Senior Class President for both Fall and Spring and was also vice president of the Spanisn Club and has belonged to the Rally Club and to the Human Relations Committee.

Adoracion also has been working part-time and was selected by her fellow students and the faculty at Jefferson High School to receive the DAR Good Citizen Award.

Janie Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wheeler, of 230 Santa Barbara, is the Salutatorian of June, 1968 at Jefferson High School and has been Senior Class secretary in addition to being active in her church group.

Janie has been working part-time since 1966 at J.C. Penney's and intends to go to San Francisco State to major in business education and administration.

FBI said, was about $2100 in cash, $2100 in bonds and 27,500 shares of a uranium stock valued at eight cents a share.

Bail was set at $20,000, and U.S. Commissioner Richard Goldsmith told Morgan that he could post just ten per cent of that, or $2,000. When Morgan was unable immediately to raise the money, he stayed overnight at the jail. His hearing is set for April 18.

investigation, veteran trustee Elio Fontana upon learning of the appeal called the maneuver, "The only constructive thing they've done."

A letter to the governor was sent April 4, Dr. Marcus said.

Concerning the appeal to Reagan, Dr. Marcus asserted that the committee he leads "feels that the present board is committed to the belief that quality education comes pre-packaged in pretty buildings and that it can somehow be delivered by large fleets of buses."

Want Good Teachers

He added, "The CSC holds to the principle that a 'back-to-essentials' movement is in order, with the greater part of the tax dollar used instead to maintain a top-grade teacher corps as the backbone of our educational system."

The citizens' committee wants the state to probe these "educaional and economic problems of our district":

1. Why must a new high school cost over $7 million while schools have been built elsewhere in the state for less than half that amount? Why, in this district that already bears the highest tax rate in the county, must a new school be built only one mile from an existing high school which has 60 acres of idle land?

2. Why do the board and superintendent cling so obstintely to their selection of this particular site, knowing as they do that they cannot obtain enough students to justify its selection without mass busing, especially now that state financial support has been sharply reduced and busing costs are in the process of rising sharply?

Below 50 Per Cent

3. Why, in state-wide testing, do our high school students score only in the forty-eighth percentile, or in the lower half of all those tested? Why do the high schools of this district send so few of their graduates to universities with high admission standards, relative even to areas in the state with higher poverty index ratings?

4. In an area where eduational excellence has yet to be proved, why is the board so unwilling to discuss as a possible alternative the building of an academic high school at a much lower cost of construction and which offers possible relief from the great costs of busing "

Cafeteria Aide OK'd

Jefferson Elementary School District trustees recently authorized a new administrative post in connection with next year's scheduled revamping of the district's cafeteria system.

Board members approved Supt. Frank Greenwood's request for creation of the position of Central Kitchen Manager.

The new manager will "direct, plan, organize and supervise the daily activities of a large centralized school cafeteria" Greenwood said, "and personally assist in preparation of food for all the district's schools."

The board several weeks ago approved a switch to a "central kitchen, catering type school lunch operation" in an effort to provide hot lunches to all the district's children, and eliminate an existing deficit in the cafeteria budget.

some of the problems facing many parents today."

One thing has become vividly clear to Hansen. There really is a communication problem between kids today and their parents.

"Don't misunderstand, I have three wonderful children and I am extremely proud of them. However, in the course of some discussions with them I find a communications problem does exist, we sometimes are talking about two different things," Hansen explains.

Are the parents totally to blame for their children running away?

"Not always! But in many cases when we ask the parents why they think the child has run off they say 'no reason' and that the child was happy. In many of these same cases we later find out this simply isn't true and that, indeed, there was a communications gap," Hansen answered.

After receiving a runaway juvenile report one morning last month, Hansen wheeled around and asked three of his top officers:

"Why do these kids run away from home?"

The answers, albeit varied, were spontaneous.

"Lack of parental control."

"Bad school grades and report cards."

"Emotioal problems on the part of the youth."

Whatever the reason, last year Daly City police handled 102 reported cases of juvenile runaways.

"I want to repeat that this was the number of reported cases—there are many more cases not reported because parents are apparently ashamed to let anyone know. They go out and search for their children by themselves," Hansen said.

Of the 102 reported cases (60 per cent girls, 40 per cent boys) 93 returned or were returned in a short time. The rest are still on the books.

To date there have been 28 reported cases, a slight increase over last year. Only six are still on the books.

The longest known runaway in the history of the Daly City police department was handled by Lt. Phil LaBruzzo and started about five years ago with the report that 14-year-old Wayne R. Sibler was missing.

When all normal channels of investigation failed to turn up the missing youth (checking with friends, known habitats, and local agencies) the distraught parents, together with police, prepared a flyer complete with photos and description anl distributed it throughout the western states.

"We even contacted the school. In many cases the child may run away from home but continues to attend school," Hansen pointed out.

The boy is still missing and the search goes on.

Another case involved a 13-year-old runaway who decided to return home—after more than a year working throughout Southern California. During the period he was missing, police expended an estimated 299 manhours triyng to find him, "not to mention the reams of paperwork."

There are many cases that end in tragedy.

One night in 1964, police received a report of a missing 16-year-old Daly City girl.

Routine investigation did not reveal foul play (something officers check for immediately) nor any reason why she would run away. A week later, the child's body was found in Marin County and the bloodied car of the victim's boyfriend was later discovered abandoned in San Francisco.

Police now receive so many reports of runaways throughout the nation that most are not put on the teletype system right away, officials disclosed.

"Sometimes we wait a couple of days to see if the kid comes home. Of course if we suspect foul play, or there is something unusual about the case, we send out a teletype alert right away," one official, who asked not to be identified, said.

In the face of this increased case load police are devoting less time to the runaways, but no less treatment.

"We are providing better professional treatment because we have learned new techniques over the years regarding these cases," Hansen said.

Chamber Sets Miss D.C. Contest

The Daly City Chamber of Commerce has selected May 29 as the date for the Miss Daly City pageant, to be held in the Little Theater of Westmoor High School.

Applications for girls wishing to enter the contest became available today at a number of locations in Daly City including the Chamber of Commerce Office at 6454 Mission Street, the First National Bank of Daly City and The Post.

To qualify the girl must be between the ages of 16 and 25, never been married, and a resident of Daly City or Colma for the past six months.

Whoever wins the beauty crown also will win a number of prizes and merchandise orders from merchants of Daly City and Colma, and also the right to represent Daly City in the Floral Fiesta and Dream Girl contest at the San Mateo County Fair later this summer.

The deadline for applying is May 23.

Secret Poll By Teachers On Salaries

Leaders of the Jefferson Classroom Teachers' Association in Daly City are conducting a secret poll today to determine "precisely what lengths to which the members will go in order to obtain a 'reasonable' salary increase."

Denis O'Leary, vice president, JCTA, said results of the balloting will be kept secret and will be used to "guide us in the bargaining on the next year's contract."

The ballots distributed last week asked district teachers to choose between Supt. Frank Greenwood's salary proposal, which includes raises ranging from one per cent for beginning teachers to 2.5 per cent for those at top scale "or continuing to support the JCTA's original request for a five per cent increase."

"Part Two" of the ballot consists of a list of ten possible actions to obtain the five per cent increase, and the teachers were asked to "Check each of the following in which you would participate."

The measures range from "withholding of contracts, within legal limits," to "strike."

Other possible actions included in the list are a teachers' march on city hall, withholding of all extra-curricular services and mail campaign to taxpayers, informational pickets, formation of a teachers', speaker's bureau and newspaper billboard and bumper sticker, publicity campaigns.

Girls Hitchhike, In European Tour

By VERA MARCUS

Twenty-one years may or may not seem like a long wait for a dream to come true, depending on your age, but Joanne Sassman of 303 Ravenswood Drive, South San Francisco, waited that long (and to a 21-year old this seems like a long, long time) for a dream of a lifetime, six months in Europe to come true.

Joanne Sassman always knew she'd go overseas and it only took teaming up with the right person, Sandra Madro, to make it a reality. The two young ladies left the Bay Area driving to New York and boarded the SS United States for five wonderful days at sea.

After docking in Southhampton the girls traveled through Great Britain, Wales, Scotland, and hitchhiked all over Ireland. They started out at Dublin, up to Cork and then to Blarney where they kissed the world-famous stone within the city's boundaries.

From the British Isles it was over to Brussels, Belgium, to Louvain and then into the Netherlands, Amsterdam, which proved great to the American. From there they journeyed up into Sweden, Norway, and Denmark, down into Germany where they discovered the cities were just like any big town in the U.S.

Christmas time was very inspiring, as the girls attended Christmas mass at the Vatican and were able to take pictures of the Pope. From there it was down the Amalfi coast and stops at Pompeii, Sorrento, and Positano where they had a terrific view of the whole coast from their rented villa.

Upon their return to Rome, Joanne and Sandra then traveled to Venice and Florence, hopped a boat to warm Greece, met a group of handsome South Americans from Argentina and were invited to share their sight-seeing bus which made stops at Athens to view the famous ruins of the Grecian past and then on to a small town of Solenika.

It was here that a thief broke into their rotel room and made off with a few small items. After this incident the girls took off immediately, for Istanbul and ended up in an authentic Turkish bath, watched a belly dancer and had a ball shopping in the Grand Bazaar.

Next on the agenda was a boat trip over to Naples to the French Riviera, Venice and up into France. Joanne felt here the most beautiful town to be visited was Loudres. Then it was down to Barcelona and the island of Majorca for the visitors. Ending the trip in Madrid, the girls flew back to New York and home, with stories to tell that will last them a lifetime.

Prison Term For Brunan

Paul Thomas Cavanagh of San Bruno, found guilty a month ago of voluntary mansalughter in the shooting death of his wife, has been ordered sent to the state prison facility at Vacaville for 90 days of observation and evaluation.

Superior Judge Melvin E. Cohn ordered criminal proceedings suspended until a report has been received following the diagnostic period.

Cavanagh, 56-year-old bartender, had been accused of murdering his wife, Ruth, 38, in a Redwood City tavern December 13. A jury, owever, found him guilty of the lesser crime of voluntary manslaughter, which carries a maximum penalty of 1 to 10 years in prison.

The probation department recommended that Cavanagh be sentenced to prison. Judge Cohn, however, noted that the report was "favorable to Mr. Cavanaugh's rehabilitation." He said the recommendation for prison was apparently made because of the "magnitude" of the offense.

Whether the defendant will be admitted to probation or sentenced to prison will be determined upon the basis of the report from Vacaville authorities.

Judge Cohn allowed Cavanagh to remain free on bail until arrangements have been completed for his admission at Vacaville.

WESTMOOR GRAD

SAN ANTONIO — Airman Donald R. Colclough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robrt D. Colclough of 428 El Dorado Drive, Daly City, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He has been assigned to the Air Force Technical Training Center at Keesler AFB, Miss, for specialized schooling as a communications-electronics specialist. Airman Colclough is a 1967 graduate of Westmoor High School.

COMMUNICATING AGAIN

NEW DELHI (AP) — For the first time in more than two years, it is again possible to place a telephone call or send a telegram between India and Pakistan.

The two countries severed their communications connections in September 1965 when they went to war over Kashmir. The links were restored Nov. 1, 1967, after several months of negotiations.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

IS GOOD FURNITURE AN EXTRAVAGANCE?

Definitely not. The only expensive furniture is "cheap" furniture, and here are the reasons we say that.

First of all, your home is the place you'll spend most of your time for the rest of your life. Should having a good chair to sit in, or a comfortable bed to sleep in, be considered an extravagance?

Think of all the dollars thrown away on completely useless and extravagant items in this country each year and you'll realize more and more that money spent on good quality and good to "look at and live with" furniture is the best investment you can make.

This does not mean that we recommend that anyone should spend money beyond what they can afford. What we mean is that the average family furnishes their home only two or three times in a lifetime, and they should make certain that what they buy will be durable both in construction and style.

If it is all you can afford, you will be better off buying one good piece of furniture at a time than a household full of poor merchandise.

There's nothing like living in a home that is comfortably furnished and decorated for yourself and your family, and we stand ready to help you achieve that goal.

$300 Taken In SSF Theft

More than $300 in cash was taken from a South San Francisco apartment last week, officers said.

Police reported the residence of William Breyette, 7 Louis Avenue, was broken into while the occupant was away on vacation.

The money was taken from a steel file cabinet, officers said.

Fogelstrom Leaves Bruno For Capital

Honors and gifts were bestowed on Clarence Fogelstrom, librarian for the past ten years with the San Bruno Park School District when he and his wife, Suzanne, were guests of honor at a gala dinner sponsored by the district library department recently at the New Southern Restaurant in South San Francisco.

More than 150 district board members, administrators, faculty, staff, P-TA representatives and friends gathered for dinner to show Fogelstrom their appreciation for his efforts and service in developing one of the finest elementary and intermediate school library systems in this area of California and to say goodbye. He has taken a new position as education specialist in the Division of Library Services and Technology in the U.S. Office of Education in Washington, D.C.

Fogelstrom was presented with a P-TA Honorary Life Membership by Mrs. Gordon Nelson, San Bruno P-TA coordinator and Mrs. Fred Milam,

Westmoorite Qualified For Speech Finals

Westmoor Senior George Muller placed third in the boys' impromptu speech category at the State Qualifying Tournament in Danville.

Seven Westmoor students accompanied by Westmoor speech teacher, Miss Mary Ann Holden, attended the full day contest. Participating in impromptu, extemporaneous, and original oratory speeches, the Westmoorites acquitted themselves well. George Muller, with his third place rating is now eligible for the state finals to be held at Stanford in late May.

George, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Muller of 145 Lake Vista Dr., has been active in speech work throughout high school. He is currently president of Junior Statesmen, and a member of the debate team. He also is a Sergeant-at-Arms and belongs to the Future Business Leaders of America.

The Daly City Council has asked for a more comprehensive soils analysis report for a stretch of property west of Skyline Boulevard before approving a tentative map for housing in that area.

Earlier, the Planning Commission has recommended approval of the Westbrae Court plan with certain conditions, and sent the matter along to the council for final approval.

Both Councilmen Micheal DeBernardi and Frank Pacelli balked at the approval pending additional information on soil conditions in the proposed development.

Although the Planning Commission and City Council had soils reports from two outside agencies — Woodward, Clyde and Sherard of Oakland, and Crosby and Associates of Palo Alto — Pacelli and DeBernardi felt answers to specific questions had not been fully answered in the reports.

The proposed site is near an almost-sheer drop to the Pacific Ocean coastline west of Skyline. Two-thirds of the way down the 530-foot cliff is the old Highway 1 roadway — abandoned since the earthquake in 1957.

Owner of the property is the Peninsula Missionary and Church Extension Society of the Methodist Church, Inc., with development by the Thunder Development Corporation of Atherton.

Previously it had been proposed to the council to construct a convalescent facility on the site, but this plan was scrapped in favor of the present proposal to build some twenty single family dwellings.

The homes would probably be set back the required thirty feet from the roadway, thus requiring they be supported with cantilever-type foundations or pier foundations extending deep enough into the ground so they would be "as safe as a normal foundation," city engineer Arthur Reschky informed the council.

Reschky said the reports indicate the soil is very stable in the concerned area and the surveys from which the report is based on "goes back to the pre-earthquake period (1957)."

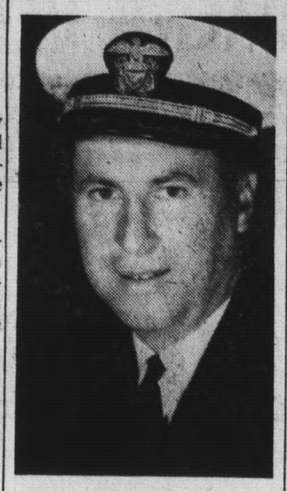
Pacelli persisted, however, in asking for identical question and answer reports from the soil engineers so the council and staff could compare the conclusions and make their decision.

The council has directed city manager Ed Frank to prepare the questions and present them to the soil engineers for answers.

HOUSE DIVIDED

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — When the Civil War broke out, one of U.S. Sen. John J. Crittenden's sons became a Union general, the other a Confederate general.

Promoted



JAXES V. GREALISH, Westlake Bowl Manager and Daly City civic leader, was last week promoted to Commodore in the U.S. Naval Reserve. Grealish, a veteran of 26 years in the Navy, will command the Reserve Destroyer Division of the 12th Naval District, comprising reserve units in Northern California, Utah and Nevada.

North Countians Named Chairmen

Two North County businessmen were named Community Chairmen for the gala Boys' Towns of Italy "Ball of the Year" party to be held at the Fairmont Hotel May 4.

Pat Depatta, of 220 Coronado Street, Daly City and F. D. Minucciani, of South San Francisco, will be in charge of ticket sales for the event for the Peninsula area.

The festive Ball plays a dual role — benefitting the Boys' Towns of Italy and honoring a local citizen of Italian descent, who has played an active part in helping the progress of his community.

This year San Francisco mayor Joe Alioto will be honored by having the Ball named after him.

In addition to saluting Mayor Alioto, the Ball will mark the West Coast debut of Italy's top singer — Emilio Pericoli.

Pericoli, twice named Billboard Magazine's Most Popular foreign artist and best known for his rendition of "Al Di La," is coming to the Bay Area especially for the event.

ITEMS TO BE USED in the preparation of baptismal water at the 11 p.m. Easter Vigil service on April 13 are displayed by graduates of the Inquiry Class of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, who will be liturgically received into the church on that evening. Pictured left to right are Audra Baca, William Dumont, George Miller, Philip Stuto and Evelyn Keene. Martha Linden, not pictured, will also participate.

Memorial Rites for King Conducted Sunday in D.C.

"We cannot let his life and his death have been in vain."

These final words of the memorial sermon delivered by the Rev. Howard Bryant, expresses the dominant theme of Daly City's Second Baptist Church's tribute to Martin Luther King on Sunday.

Reverand Bryant titled his sermon "Supreme Love" and in it he spoke of the comparability of the love of Christ for all men and the love shown by Dr. King in his search for a non-violent solution to this nation's racial troubles and for peace in the world.

Guests at the service included Mayor Bernard J. Lycett and Judge Paul Hupf. Both delivered short messages in honor of the fallen civil rights leader. Mayor Lycett said "What we are doing here today is not enough. We need a lasting monument to this man and to the ideas for which he gave his life."

Father George Kutches from Our Lady of Perpetual Help spoke of the time he met King and the way in which Dr. King and his wife faced the continual possibility of his murder.

The Executive Director of the San Francisco Council of Churches, John Chester Smith, read the scripture for the day which included the verse St. John, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Two members of the congregation read their own words honoring Dr. King. Mrs. Patricia Dean read a short essay she had written and Mrs. Eloise Fontenot Giles read a poem she had composed.

Dr. King's favorite hymn, "Precious Lord Take My Hand," was sung by Mrs. Emma Bryant.

An interantional note was added when Dr. Oke, a physician at U.C. Hospital and a citizen of Nigeria, spoke of the impact of Dr. King on Africans. "The grief of Americans is shared in my country," he said. "The people of the world must work all the harder to make Dr. King's principles a living memorial to him."

Good Friday Services Set For Bethel

Two services will be conducted Good Friday at Bethel Lutheran Church, 2525 Alemany Boulevard.

The first service will begin at 1 p.m. with the children of the Sunday school participating.

The junior choir, under the direction of Miss Gladys Schultz, will sing as will the primary department.

Those attending will receive a miniature gold cross as a memento.

The second service will be held at 7:30 p.m.

The members of the Confirmation Class will partake of the Sacrament of Holy Communion with the congregation.

The Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will conduct the services.

The festival of Easter will be observed on Sunday at 8 a.m. and at 10:45 a.m.

Mrs. Abel Fabela, the organist, will play special Easter music.

The junior choir, together with a number of women's voices, under the direction of Miss Schultz, will present Easter selections.

Reverend Schroeder will preach at both services.

Sunday school and Bible classes will be held at 9:30 a.m.

S.S.F. Plan Approved

South San Francisco planning commissioners Monday approved a revamped general plan "designed to serve the city's needs for the next 25 years."

The new plan, prepared by Hahn, Wise and Associates, "is flexible enough to lend itself to adjustment for any foreseeable future requirements," City Planner Daniel Pass said, "and is also the most readable plan we have had to date."

Pass said the new plan has "borrowed much from the adopted 1962 Plan, and should be considered as a five-year comprehensive revampment of that plan."

"While it differs in form, it is similar in substance," he said.

One of the major changes is the deletion of portions of the general plan pertaining to parts of San Bruno, Colma, Daly City and Brisbane "which are within the city's sphere of influence."

Among the proposals in the new plan is future annexation of "the lands east of Daly City and Pacifica, south of Colma and San Bruno Mountain, West of San Francisco Bay, and north of the city of San Bruno."

Annexation of the California Golf Club course, Country Club Park and the southerly slope of San Bruno Mountain is also proposed.

The plan calls for redevelopment of Grand Avenue between Spruce Avenue and Airport Boulevard as a "partial mall," and also encourages apartment-house development "on the periphery of the urban core and adjacent to shopping centers."

Three regional parks are also contained in the plan. These would be located on the San Francisco Bay shoreline, the San Bruno Mountain slopes and lands of the California Golf Club.

One of the plan's stated objectives is to "discourage the filling of tide lands or any portion of the Bay."

"If filling operations are allowed to continue, the city's marina and port facilities could become obsolete within a few years," the plan states.

The 53-page document touches upon all areas of future development of the city, and includes extensive and specific proposals for "traffic circulation," industrial development, and general use of living and working area.

It envisions a city of 80,000 "ultimate population," and urges a "continued balancing of industrial and residential use of available land area."

Broadmoor's Easter Week Rites Told

Easter Week Services at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377 — 87th Street, Daly City, will be launched with a Maundy Thursday Communion Service commemorating the institution of the Last Supper, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The choir will sing the anthem, "Thou Goest to Jerusalem."

The pastor, the Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, will speak on "Communion and the Cross."

The Union Good Friday Service is to be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. at the Westlake Community Baptist Church.

Eight local pastors will be participating upon the meditation theme which is "The Seven Last Words of Christ from the Cross."

The public is invited for all or part of this service.

Two Easter Services will be held on Sunday at 9:15 and 11 a.m.

The choir will sing "Angels, Roll the Stone Away" and "Since by Man Came Death."

The sermon is to be on the subject "He Lives!"

Sunday School sessions will be held during each session of worship.

The Ester Sunrise Service will be held at 5:36 a.m. on top of Mount Davidson in San Francisco, sponsored by the San Francisco Council of Churches.

OPEN BOARD MEETING

The Men's Club of Congregation B'nai Israel will hold an open Board meeting April 11 at 8 p.m. at the Templehouse. All members of the Men's Club are invited.

Westside Baptist Announces Rites

On April 14, Pastor A. David Donnelly will speak on the topic "The Resurrection Commission" at the 11 a.m. Easter Service, at Westside Baptist Church.

Special music will be provided by Roy King, soloist, with Mrs. Jeanne King, accompanying.

During the Adult Worship Hour, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson will conduct the primary church service for boys and girls four through seven years of age.

The Pastor's church membership orientation class for adults and youth, meets during the Sunday School class period. In this class a brief history of the Baptist General Conference and the local church is given. What the Church teaches is explained and requirements for church membership locally are explained.

Sunday evening, there will be no services at Westside Baptist Church.

On that evening, members and friends of the church will travel to the Lakeside Baptist Church, 1515 Third Avenue, Oakland, for the 7 p.m. Gospel Hour there.

At this service, Pastor Donnelly will conduct a water baptism service for a number of prospective candidates for membership in the local church.

Special music for this service will be brought by the Westside male quartette, and Bill DeLung, soloist. Mrs. Ed Brunzell will accompany.

Friday evening members of the church will join with other churches cooperating with the San Mateo County Association of Evangelical Ministers, as they unite for a Good Friday Evangelistic service, 7:45 p.m., at the College of San Mateo gymnasium, 1700 West Hillsdale Boulevard, San Mateo.

Saturday at 8 a.m., Men's Prayer Fellowship unit meets at the church parsonage, 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno.

Tuesday, April 16, 9:30 a.m., Women's Bible Study meets at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 533 Hickey Boulevard, (Fairmont) Pacifica. Mrs. Barbara DeLung is the teacher, and presently is conducting a study of the Gospel of Mark.

Tuesday, 7:50 p.m., the Women's Missionary Society of the church meets at the home of Mrs. Hubert Reid, 3991 Pacific Heights Boulevard, San Bruno.

Today, the mid-week Prayer and Bible Study Hour will meet at the James Pollock home, 2440 Bantry Lane, South San Francisco, at 7:30 p.m.

Following the time of Bible study and prayer, the Ed Brunzell family of Millbrae will be feted at a farewell time. The Brunzells are moving to Cupertino.

During the past year Brunzell has been the junior high Sunday school teacher, and this past summer directed athletics at the District High Schools summer camp at Hume Lake.

Mrs. Brunzell has been the church pianist, also serving on the music committee.

On behalf of the fellowship, Pastor Donnelly will present the family with a token of appreciation of their loyalty and service.

Westside Baptist Church holds its Sunday services at the San Andreas School auditorium, Hickey Boulevard and Inverness Drive, (Fairmont) Pacifica. The church is actively affiliated wtih the Baptist General Conference. The church office is located at 3370 Longview Driev, San Bruno.

D.C. Ministerial Group Outlines Worship Plans

The traditional Good Friday observance of three hours of worship will be held at the Westlake Community Baptist Church under the auspices of the Daly City Ministerial Association.

The great traditional hyms and gospel songs of the cross, such as "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," comprise the worship with periods of silence and prayers. Miss Jane Holko will be at the organ with vocalists from participating churches rendering sacred anthems.

The spoken word will be given by participating clergymen in the following order: The Rev. Tom Unmacht of the Westlake Lutheran Church, "Father, Forgive Them." Dr. Hansel Stembridge, host pastor, "Today You Will Be With Me in Paradise."

"Woman, Behold Thy Son," the third word of Christ of the Cross, given by the Rev. Roy Erford of the Seacliff Community Church. The Rev. Howard Bryant of the Second Baptist Church reflects upon the poignant cry, "My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?"

The Rev. Jess Mark and the Rev. James McCluskey, newest members on the local team, will speak on the briefest words, "I thirst" and "It is finished." Mr. Mark pastors Wesley Methodist and Mr. McCluskey, Grace Presbyterian. The Rev. Herb Tweedy of Broadmoor Presbyterian will conclude the service with "Father, Into Thy Hands I Commit My Spirit."

The public is invited. Come at any time from 12 to 3 p.m. The church is on Southgate and Elmwood near Westlake Shopping Center.

'Witnesses' Plan April 12 Service

Jehovah's Witnessess of the Daly City congregation will celebrate the Memorial of Christ's death April 12.

Roland E. Collier, circuit supervisor of 16 San Francisco and peninsula congregations, announced that.

April 12 this year corresponds with Nisan 14 of the calendar used by the Jewish nation in Jesus' day.

Collier explained, "It is the anniversary of the death of Jesus Christ and is commemorated by Jehovah's Witnesses once each year on this date."

Emphasizing the importance of the observance, Collier stated that a peak attendance is expected not only at the Local Kingdom Hall, 3435 Alemany Boulevard but in all 25,206 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses around the world.

The Memorial service will be conducted by William Thompson, presiding minister of the local congregation. Thompson will explain the significance of Christ's death and why the anniversary must be observed by Christians down to this day.

A week of special activity is planned by the Daly City congregation in connection with the memorial celebration.

A house-to-house visitation program has been arranged and all in the congregation will participate.

It will feature the distribution of the special April 15 issue of the Watchtower magazine containing the article, "What God's High Priest Will Do for the People."

Climax of the special week will be the public Bible lecture on April 14, at 10 a.m., titled, "Enjoying the Best in Family Life."

Service Set

A short Passover Service will be held at Congregation Bnei Israel in Colma, April 12th at 7:15 p.m. The following evening a traditional Passover Seder will be held in the Templehouse. A regular Passover service will be held, April 14th at 10 a.m. All services and the Seder will be conducted by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore and Cantor Henry Greenberg.

Easter Services At Coast Church

Bethlehem Lutheran Church on Hickey Boulevard in Pacifica will celebrate the festival of Easter at three services of worship this Sunday.

Easter, the most important celebration of the year, for the Christian Church, commemorates the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Traditionally, churches have held early morning services on Easter Sunday to commemorate this event.

Bethlehem will hold an early service with Holy Communion at 6:15 a.m. on Easter, April 14.

This will be followed by a Continental Breakfast served by the youth of the church at 7 a.m. The sermon topic for this service is, "Easter Living."

There will also be identical worship services at the usual hours of 9 and 11 a.m. Pastor Swendsoid's sermon topic at these services is, "Celebration In The Cemetery."

At 9 a.m. services, the girl's chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Lois Howard will sing, "Christ The Lord is Risen Today."

At the 11 a.m. service, the senior choir under the direction of Howard Loeffler will sing "The Holy City."

The regular Sunday School and Adult Discussion hour will be conducted at 10 a.m.

An Ecumenical Good Friday service, sponsored by the churches of the community, will be held at Bethlehem Lutheran Church on April 12, from 12 to p.m.

The service is divided into four segments: 12-12:25; 12:35-1; 1:10-2 and 2:10-3, but with one unifying theme, so that worshippers may come for one or more parts of the services.

Ministers of Pacifica churches including Reverend Swendseid, will participate in the service.

Easter Text At Wesley Church Told

Easter worship services at Wesley Methodist Church of Daly City will be taken from the text, "He was known to them in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24, 35).

Pastor Jesse P. Mark announces that his sermon, "New Life Today," will demonstrate today's need for renewal in the individual, in the Christian family, and in society.

The choir will present the cantata "Our Living Lord" by Ira B. Wilson, portraying the moods and events of the crucifixion and resurrection. Mrs. Mary Murray is music director. Soloist for the Easter services will be Mrs. Ruth Ellen Stewart. Miss Concha Midrid will accompany at the piano.

Band Members Honored

Westmoor's Stage Band has had a big win in the University of Nevada Stage Band Festival, and now other groups are in demand from the Westmoor Music Department, under the direction of Howard Loeffler.

Part of Westmoor's Concert Band was honored to be invited to participate in a special Court of Honor held in Pacifica to presest the Eagle Award to 15-year-old Terra Nova student Mike Granger.

Mike's father, a recent returnee from Vietnam, his mother, and his two sisters are also active in the Scouting program.

The crowd in attendance were most impressed by the background music provided by the students as Mike was given his album of merit badges, letters of congratulations from the White House, Governor Reagan, San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, and other dignitaries.

At the recent meeting of the Westlake Senior Citizens Club, a double girls' chorus from Westmoor High sang for the membership. This group numbers 85 members. As he does in all the music classes, Loeffler is developing student leadership, and for these two groups, Jeannie Olson and Brenda Wells were the leaders. Marvis Miyasota and Linda Ramsey were the accompanists. Each group sang selections and closed with a combined selection, "Like as a Father."

Almost anti-climatic after the successes of the music department this year, was the notification from the Usiversity of Nevada that Mike Hinton, junior in Westmoor's Stage Band, has been selected as the outstanding drummer from the 65 stage bands from five western states that had competed in their festival.

Mike was awarded a scholarship to the university-sponsored summer Lake Tahoe Music Camp and was one of eight winners of $880 scholarships to the University of Nevada. Mike also has played as an amateur and professional in groups.

There will be no teen or J-teen activities during Easter vacation in Pacifica. Teen programs will resume on April 16.

The J-teen "surprise trip," will be held on April 27 at a surprise location in the San Francisco Bay Area. Fee for the trip will be $2.

Information sheets will be passed out through the school next week. Deadline for permission slips and money will be April 16 from 7 to 8 p.m. at Sharp Park School or at the J-teen dance April 19, at Cabrillo School from 7 to 9 p.m.

The recent band dance at Fairmont School was termed "very successful."

Music was provided by "The Vertical Hold."

Highlights of the evening featured an Easter Egg (record and band battle ticket) hunt.

The winners were Morgan Lee and Terry Clerk, records; Kelly Turner and Gayle Carnemeole, tickets.

Morgan Lee and Laura Tramaine won the dance contest.

The next J-teen dance will be held at Cabrillo School on April 19 reports senior recreation leader David G. Barry III.

THE DOLL BOOTH at the Our Lady of Mercy parish festival will be staffed by the three women above (left to right), Mrs. Charles Boerio, Mrs. John Breslin and Mrs. Clyde Silverthorne. Theme of the festival this year is "Saludos Amigos" and dates are May 2, 3, 4 and 5.

Awards Given D.C. Pack 184

Cub Scout Pack 184 met recently at the M. Pauline Brown School.

These boys received awards: Mike Sakkestad, denner and three year pin; Chris Tulley, assistant denner, artist and outdoorsman; Mark Yochim, scientist, geologist, nd three year pin; Clay Summers, three year pin; Vince Riccobuano, sportsmen; Jimmy Kristofferson, wolf, one year and two year pin; Mike Syriac, athlete, citizen, craftsmen, geologist, showmen, and traveler awards.

Bob Lehr was introduced as the new cubmaster. Yancy Wyatt will be his assistant.

The Easter Menu

Good morning, good cooks — Hope you have finished your Easter sewing and that the zipper went into the dress easily and the skirt hangs straight. If it doesn't, all you can do is sob and rip the darn thing out again.

Easter sewing is one thing, Easter shopping is quite another. I speak of shopping with your daughter. Do you notice that your tastes are diametrically opposed on all matters of style?

The minute I hear my daughter say, "How darling!", I know without turning around that the object of her adoration is going to be a dress that will turn my hair snow white.

And that there will be a strong battle of wills before a purchase is made. With just the experience I've gained in bargaining and compromising about the hei, thof a heel on her Easter shoes, I should be a delegate to any international peace conferences.

My daughter, Terri, just read this column and says she would like to say a little something about my taste in clothes." "YICK!!!"

I know that come Easter Sunday all of us will look quite charming in our Easter outfits. And the little members of our family will be scurrying around looking for the goodies the Easter Bunny has brought. Once they lay hands on the eggs and chocolate chickens their day will be complete.

But you and I have to thing about Easter dinner don't we? I have some ideas for entrees and for desserts that should please.

Since lamb is much favored as an Easter entree I am going to share some recipes from the American Lamb Council. This first recipe uses leg of lamb and gussies up the serving platter with peaches.

LEB OF LAMB WITH MERINGUE PEACHES

1 leg of lamb
salt and pepper

Place lamb fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Roast in 325 degree oven for 30 to 35 minutes per pound. If using meat thermometer insert so tip is in center of largest muscle and roast to an internal temperature of 175-degrees to 180-degrees. Serve with garnish of Lemon Meringue Peaches.

LEMON MERINGUE PEACHES

1 can (1 pound 13 ounces) cling peach halves
4 teaspoons lemon juice
1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon grated lemon ring

Drain peaches well. Spoon two teaspoons lemon juice over cut surface of six peach halves and rub in. Beat the egg white until stiff but not dry. Gradually add the two tablespoons sugar and continue beating. Add the remaining two teaspoons lemon juice and one teaspoon grated lemon rind; beat to mix. Spoon meringue onto cut surface of peach halves and sprinkle with remaining two teaspoons grated lemon rind. Bake in 450-degree oven for 5 minutes or until meringue is nicely browned. Serves 6.

If your preference is ham you might want to try this very simple and very tasty glaze.

BROWN SUGAR GLAZE

1 cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
¼ cup pineapple juice

When your ham has cooked until it is within one-half hour of it's complete period, score it, decorate with whole cloves and spread with half of the glaze. Return to oven and bake 15 minutes. Remove and arrange pineapple slices over ham, holding the slices in place with toothpicks. Spread the remaining glaze over ham and return to oven. Bake 15 minutes longer.

Ham or lamb this pineapple relish will add color and taste appeal to your meal.

PINEAPPLE RELISH

1 cup pineapple chunks (No. 2½ size)
three-fourths cup cider vinegar
1 cup sugar
6 whole allspice
6 cloves
2 three-inch pieces stick cinnamon
dash of salt
green food coloring

Drain pineapple. Combine the three-fourths cup vinegar, one cup sugar, six each whole allspice and cloves, two pieces cinnamon and salt in a saucepan. Cook 10 minutes; add pineapple and bring to a hard boil. Remove from heat and add the food coloring. Cool and store in refrigerator.

About the amount of food coloring — I just add a drop or two, stirred and added more until it reached the color that pleased me. Don't make it too dark, you want it light and springy looking.

You might want to sevre fried chicken to your family and guests this happy day, or turkey. After all there is no law that says turkey is reserved for the winter months. If you do want to serve a turkey and don't want to go to the trouble of stuffing it, try this delicious carrot dressing.

CARROT DRESSING

10 large carrots
3 tbsp. butter
3 cups cubed or grated bread
1 med. onion, chopped
1 cup rich milk
salt and pepper to taste
Poultry seasoning to taste (I used one teaspoon)
2 egg yolks, beattn
2 whites of eggs, beaten

Peel, cut and cook the ten carrots in boiling salted water. Mash and add the three tablespoons melted butter, three cups bread, one chopped onion, one cup milk and seasonings. Stir well and add tht beaten egg yolks. Lastly, fold in beaten egg whites and place in large casserole. Set in pan of water and bake one hour in 350-degree oven until it is somewhat firm.

Now for a dessert that is easy to make, a perfect color for Easter, bright yellow, and simply delicious. My friend Mrs. Ceil Collins gave me this recipe and it's just a gem.

RUM CAKE

1 pkg. yellow cake mix
1 pkg. lemon gelatin (3 oz.)
three-fourths cup salad oil
three-fourths cup water
1 tablespoon rum flavoring
4 eggs

Combine the cake mix, one package gelatin, three-fourths cup each water and oil and one tablespoon rum flavoring; Blend on low speed until moistered. Then on high speed beating in eggs one at a time. Beat 4 minutes. Pour into well greased and floured tube pan. Bake in 350-degree oven for 45 minutes. When done remove from pan immediately and pour rum sauce over hot cake. Let stand three or four hours before serving. Serves 8 to 10.

RUM SAUCE

½ cup scalded milk
2 tablespoons rum flavoring
1½ cups powdered sugar, sifted

Scald the half cup milk, add the two tablespoons rum and then stir in the one and one-half cups powdered sugar.

MARY'S HELP Hospital Guild's annual "Day at the Races" will be held April 17 at Golden Gate Fields, as a kick-off event for the guild's annual Fuschia Ball in May. The chairman, Mrs. Joseph Tinney (right) has appointed Mrs. Frank Lawson (left) as "Day at the Races" chairman. Also shown is Mrs. Jerry Wagner, who joined in planning discussion. Ticket price will include Turf Club admission, buffet luncheon and a chartered bus transportation from Westlake.

Catholic Women Plan Gathering

The Fourth Quarterly Meeting of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, San Mateo Deanery, will be held at St. Catherine's School, Bayswater Avenue and Park Drive in Burlingame, April 16, beginning with a bcsiness meeting at 7:45 p.m. and followed by reports by Commission Chairmen and program at 8:30 p.m.

St. Catherine's Women's Club will serve as hostess group. Mrs. Robert Buckley is president.

Mrs. Walter Gillogley, president of the ACCW San Mateo Deanery, announced the guest speaker will be Dan Belknapp. His topic will be "Challenges Meeting the Family Today." A specialist with married couples, teenagers, and groups, Belknapp does much of his work with Catholic Social Service.

All interested members, officers, delegates, moderators, and chairmen are invited to attend.

Members attending are asked to take canned food or clothing for the Catholic Protestant Jewish Women Day Nursery in East Palo Alto. Communion dresses and layettes for the Pope's Warehouse may also be turned in.

A special bus trip to Sacramento to observe the State Legislature in session has been scheduled for April 18, leaving St. Matthew's School ground at 7 a.m. and returning about 6 p.m. Single or group reservations may be made with Mrs. P. J. O'Halloran, 832 Foothill Drive, San Mateo, by April 14.

A Parliamentary Workshop for all new officers, representatives or delegates is slated for May 28, at St. Charles' Meeting Hall, Tamarack and Bell Street in San Carlos, from 9:30 a.m. to noon. Mrs. Bonnie Ploeger, a registered, professional Parliamentarian, will be the speaker. She will discuss parliamentary procedure, duties of officers, by-laws and other related subjects.

Tau Gamma Prepares for Beta Sigma Ball

The Tau Gamma Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority in Pacifica will take an active part in the Founder's Day Ball being planned by all local chapters of the sorority, according to MRS. BARBARA HACKLEY.

MRS. IRENE McSHEA is the chairman of Tau Gammas's preparations committee and she already has begun work on the April 27 event which is scheduled for the Hilton Inn in South San Francisco.

Tau Gamma will change leadership next month when Mrs. Hackley hosts the membership in her home for the installation ceremonies. MRS. JOYCE McNULTY, has been eltcted president of the unit, to be assisted by MRS. JOANNE PURSER, vice president; MRS. SHIRLEY JAMES, recording secretary; MRS. HACKLEY, corresponding secretary and MRS. "RONNIE" SANFORD the treasurer.

The final festive event of the current administration was a gala progressive dinner "April Foolish" held earlier this month. About 30 husbands and wives, all dressed in some whimsical bit of 'foolishness, congregated at the home of MRS. THELMA LOOS for cocktails and then trekked on to the homes of Mrs. SHIRLEY JAMES for salad, the entree was served in MRS. ROBERTA GOULD'S home and the dessert, followed by a bingo party, was in the home of MRS. SANDY ROSE, the retiring president.

Special event of the evening was the presentation of a Mizpah charm to MRS. TEDRA ZISSIMOS who was attending her final chapter gathering prior to moving to a new home in Concord.

2 Debaters High-Ranked

Westmoor debaters George Muller and Jeff Harris recently placed themselves among the top 40 debating teams in California by becoming one of the six undefeated pairs at the Golden Gate Speech Association State Qcalifying Debate Tournament.

Luck deserted them in the semi-finals, however, and they were defeated.

The topic for the tournament was that Congress should establish uniform regulations to control criminal investigation. In their affirmative speeches on the topic, Jeff and George stressed that crime has reached serious proportions, there is presently confusion and frustration amongst law enforcement officers and the only way to amend this situation is by adopting the resolution.

Jeff is a freshman at Westmoor and is active in Junior Statesmen and speech events.

George, a senior, is also active in Junior Statesmen and speech events. He recently captured third place in the State Semi-Final Boys' Impromptu division.

AS THE ONLY males among 850 females, three Westmoor High School representatives, Student Body President Don Weiden, Student Body Vice President Charlie Freiberg, and Junior Class President Bob Joyce, spent the day attending classes and eating lunch at Mercy High, March 18.

Earlier in March, Mercy High Vice President Kares Carrillo and Sophomore class president Stephanie Chapralis visited Westmoor observing both classes and Student Council operations in an effort to improve their Student Government.

As noted by Don Weiden, president of a 2400-member student body, marked differences in discipline, activities, and curriculum were found at Mercy due to its relatively small student body.

"The combination of education, good food, and good-looking girls, made the day totally worthwhile," commented Charlie Freiberg, vice president of Westmoor Student Body.

IT IS NOT OFTEN that someone gets a chance to see the dead rise and hear them speak. Yet just such an opportunity will present itself on the Westmoor High School stage throughout the second weekend of May. The Westmoorites will be presenting "Spoon River Anthology," a story of a small town's dead delivering their own epitaphs.

The play will be under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Brown with the assistance of Miss Francine Russo. It features eight players, each acting out many roles, and two folksingers who accompany the play with song and guitar music.

DR. RICHARD HENKE, assistant pathologist at Mary's Help Hospital describes Mammography (an improved x-ray examination which records variations in the densities of soft tissues of the breast) to Howard Naify, Serra Theatre owner and Mrs. Vivian Wingate, Serra Bowl nursery supervisor. Dr. Henke will speak and answer questions at the Serra Theatre, 2710 Junipero Serra Boulevard, Daly City, April 15 when the American Cancer Society's Daly City Unit presents its annual free film "Breast Self-Examination" at 1 p.m. Free child care will be available at the Serra Bowl on Junipero Serra Boulevard to enable women to view the film at the Serra Theatre.

Thought Process Traced

Few pundits have seriously considered the "whys" and "wherefores" of the thinking process. From scientific minds which have considered the question of what makes a person think have come various theories.

Some hold that thought processes are the natural result of a maturing body. Others contend they are not developed until an encounter is made with a situation demanding a new and puzzling logical sequence.

Still others are exponents of theories which hold that society, habit and environmental pressures are controlling factors in directing human thoughts into certain channels.

Each of these theories appears to have merit, and none has been disproven. It may be, when man has satisfied himself with a solution to the riddle, that all will have made a contribution to the solution.

After years of study, a Swiss scientist concludes the answer to mental growth lies in the need for correlating strange conditions found by an inquisitive young mind with some object or condition familiar to memory.

Thus, while the first two years of a child's life may produce little evidence of thinking, the elementary objects played with and observed during this period may be the foundation blocks of memory upon which the individual builds the remainder of his life. Developing thought processes is a tedious task.

One might simply observe the reaction of an unfamiliar event by noting the ease with which a child plays with a familiar mechanical toy, but soon loses interest in one employing a principle not observed before.

As a person grows older, his experiences multiply, until a well educated individual reaches a point from which totally new experiences are relatively few. Such a person is more easily able to adjust to changing circumstances than one who lacks experience or veers away from new and perplexing situations.

Could it be that what psychologists are now uncovering as differences in thinking attitudes are what psychiatrists previously catalogued as introvert and extrovert personalities?

No 'Easy' Money

Buried under reports on New Hampshire's quadrennial political game was the state's announcement of results of its first four years in the lottery game.

Since March 12, 1964, when it inaugurated the first state-operated sweepstakes of the Twentieth Century, New Hampshire has given $5.573 million in prizes to 10,613 winners — and $8.151 million to its school districts.

What the school districts got came to $17 a year per pupil, which is a small share of the $525 a year each pupil costs New Hampshire. The report also reaffirms how greatly the New Hampshire sweepstakes have failed the high expectations of 1964.

By original estimates, the schools' take would have been at least twice as much by now.

Lotteries are a self-defeating method of raising money for schools or other activities of government. They drain other tax sources while generating a small take for government purposes.

This experience offers a further note of caution to those in other states inclined to believe a state lottery is the solution of tax problems. The "easy money" has yet to live up to its advance notices.

Travel of Candidates

One does not wonder at President Johnson's desire to retire rather than enter another campaign.

In 1964 he had to leave running the country to others while he went out to talk to 14 million people. The campaign against him lacked substance, but made it up in low insults and dirt.

His opponent, Senator Goldwater was calling him a raving, ranting, demagogue, an ignoramus, a crook, a warmonger, trigger-happy and a vote thief.

Goldwater traveled 75,000 miles, or the distance of three trips around the earth, Towards the end of his campaign he was punch-drunk with only the recollection of an aide by his side saying "It's time to go, it's time to go."

After his 1960 campaign Richard Nixon was a gaunt shadow of himself. Eisenhower at the conclusion of the 1956 donnybrook was harried and waspish. In 1940 Wilkie was broken in health. After 1948 Harry Truman had to take a prolonged vacation before he could return to his awesome tasks.

HARRY TRUMAN traveled 22,000 miles in 1948. This was less than Wendell Wilkie's 28,000 in 1940 and far less than Eisenhower's 50,000. In 1960 Nixon promised to visit all fifty states and logged 65,000 miles. Johnson and Goldwater in 1964 followed daily schedules that sent them campaigning in the deep South in the morning, in Chicago in the afternoon and in Boston at night.

It is said that had Governor Romney continued his campaign for the 1968 Republican nomination he would have exhausted the fortune that he had made in a lifetime of business leadership. To win the delegates from West Virginia from Hubert Humphrey, John F. Kennedy spent nearly as much as Humphrey had made in his entire life of fifty years.

And all this, writes Jules Abels in a book entitled "The Degeneration of our Presidential Election," is unnecessary.

To illustrate his thesis Abel quotes Dean Burch, Republican campaign manager in 1964 — "It is idiotic to think that any but the fondest supporters would drive miles to a remote, noisy airport to hear a few fragments of a speech." ... In practical fact they (the candidates) end up largely talking to their friends in a race against exhaustion, mouthing dreary, ghost-written speeches which often miss the true issues and influence virtually no one — all at monumental expenses.

Abels charges that modern candidates deliberately refrain from discussing issues. To illustrate he presents the record of the Kennedy-Nixon campaign. Nixon spoke platitudes which Kennedy twisted into nothing and added meaningless wit.

There are three parts to Abel's book — the Present, the Past, the Future.

IN PART THREE he states that the presidential campaign swill not improve as long as the American people remain uninformed on the issues that face the country, — "most voters find the issues incomprehensible."

A survey of high school seniors reported by Fredelle B. Maynard is quoted, "The most striking quality of candidates for college entrance is their ignorance. One accepts tht fact that many cannot spell. What is truely shocking is the discovery that they read so little and understand so little of what they read ... Of history other than American, the writers seem to know almost nothing. Even American figures are presented with a kind of comic-book simplicity ... as to current events there is little interest in the basic issues and one is obliged to conclude that the Problems of Democracy courses fail in their prime objective."

"We can throw up our hands," writes Abel, "and say that the present situation is due to inherent flaws in the democratic process. On the other hand we can try to do something about it.

"The first step would be a frank recognition that a basic institution of American democracy has gone askew."

Some Ifs and Buts ...

WHAT NOW MY LOVE, now that it's over?—Thanx to our early Tuesday deadline I find myself writing this election stuff with tongue-in-cheek and arthritic fingers crossed. Consequently this weekly gem will be chock-full of "ifs" and few "buts."

Firstly, IF that Planning Commissioner doesn't win a seat on the Daly City council, he and a fellow Planner will be unceremoniously dumped, pronto!

And to set some people straight: The so-called East Side of Daly City (which is certainly not a poor, decaying, colorless extension of San Francisco's Mission District, as some people have reported) has representation on the D.C. council: Ed Dennis, who makes no bones about being upset at some people who keep harping that that section of the city needs a voice in city matters.

If these people would take the time to sit in on a meeting they would know that Dennis has a mighty BIG voice in what goes on in that part of town—Ask the people who live up there.

AND HOW LONG will it take the candidates to get those awful looking campaign signs down. They seem to be spread over every available space, on every pole, and in every open lot in the North County. Get out them hammers!

FLAT OF OUR SWORD—to those secretaries who answer calls for so and so with "Sorry he's away from his desk for a moment." Come on gals, you can do better than that! ... To that Anonymous person who signed his (or her???) letter the "Shadow's Shadow" and criticized the two D.C. incumbent councilmen for "using the mails illegally" because they put some politcial ads in mailboxes without postage. We checked and found this DID happen in a couple of isolated cases, but NOT by the incumbents, rather by an unknowing helper who stopped immediately when cautioned about it. Nuff said!

SAYONARA DEPARTMENT—Former Brisbane police chief Lillard Dyer and family left last week for Texas. Dyer left his post in the wake of hearings into alleged misuse of department funds.

SICK CALL DEPT—Doelger's chief cop, Henry Gross, in St. Mary's for back operation resulting from a skirmish with an unruly apartment dweller during a disturbing the peace call last fall ... Times-Post TV editor, Bob Foster, recovering from tummy trouble at home following a stint at Mills Hospital in S.M. ... Senior Citizen and community leader Ann Eason resting at Mary's Help.

OUR GOOD FRIEND down Pacifica way, Jack McCarthy (Toledo Court) sweated out three boys in recent years and when his wife broke the news that another Blessed Event was about to happen, Jack figured the odds for a girl were in his favor and made arrangements for the arrival of the Little Lady. But the odds had other ideas and the night Jerome arrived Mary's Help rocked to the wails of six other boys—no girls.

DALY CITY POLICE officer Martin Lively (One of them Good Guys) was expected to take a leave of absence starting in June to study for his Bar exam. Awright, awright, we KNOW the one about the alcoholic lawyer who couldn't pass the bar.

WATCH FOR a supper in D.C. soon to celebrate the opening of the new courthouse. Muni judge Charles Becker presiding. And speaking of courts, superior judge Frank Blum isn't sure yet when he will hang up his robes in the SSF chambers. Guesstimates are sometime in June (But what year?).

FINALLY GETTING THAT overpass up in SSF. Assemblyman Leo Ryan has been hammering to get the thing up for more than a year—since a youngster was killed there after leaving a bus en route home from school.

DEFINITION DEPT.—Good Old D.C. mayor Bud Lycett, never one to let a day slip by without some words of wisdom, confided the definition of "quidnunc" is "a busybody." My pappy used to say: Takes one to ...?

SPEAKING OF MAYORS ... SF's Joe Alioto is talking about upping the green fees at San Francisco course for "out of towners." How will that affect Sharp Park players? The course is in Pacifica and is owned by SF. Who will determine if a player is an "out-of-towner?" Etc., Etc.

Familiar Face

Take a man who was born in San Francisco, taken by his parents to Italy at an early age, returned again to his native city looking around for his birthplace and the theatre he remembers his mother appearing as a headliner. Sounds like a soap opera? It would have to be because Vito Scotti's nostalgia for San Francisco is minimal and doesn't interfere with his career as one of the most prolific actors in the business.

He's one of those character actors you've seen a dozen times and could never identify. That's because he changes his accent, his makeup and his nationality with every picture, but it doesn't make him any the less talented.

I barely recognized him at lunch yesterday in Trader's Vic's although the mustache is a give-away from his latest icture "The Private War of Harry Frigg" which opened last night on the Peninsula.

He's using his Italian face in this one. Before that he successfully carried off the role of prisoner-of-war in "Captain Newman, M.D." as the engineer of "Von Ryan's Express," "Rio Conchos," as a Mexican bandit and a bank robber in "What Did You Do in the War, Daddy?"

THIS LIST OF CREDITS WOULD LEAD YOU TO THINK he was versatile. That's not to mention his appearances on the Dick Van Dyke show as a housepainter, the Dick Powell Show as an Arab sheepherder, Gilligan's Island as a Japanese sailor, the Donna Reed show as a Russian prince, the Farmer's Daughter as a dress designer, and as Picasso in the Addams Family, to name only a few.

Though he has been seen chiefly in comedy roles, Socci has enormous experience and sensitivity to play serious roles and has his own distinctive style that has been called "Chaplinesque" by more than one director.

He was born in the German Hospital in North Beach during the time his mother was appearing at a local (he looked for it but found only a parking lot) theater where his father was impressario.

Once the family had moved to Tunis and after his father's death in Italy. Scotti developed a career in nightclubs and radio. By the time he found his way back to San Francisco, via the hungry i and Purple Onion, all traces of his parentage had disappeared. Movies and the myriad characterizations he had learned to impersonate from his days as a pantomimist, absorbed his time. Now there is none left for legitimate plays and the demanding career as a commercial actor and a film actor keep him busy the year round.

I'M A MASTER AT MAKEUP but have to let the union people do it. So I submit photographs after hours of home experimentation and hope they'll follow my suggestions. After all, I play so many different roles, who knows best how to change an accent, a hairline, a beard, than I," the actor related in a soft, authentic Italian accent.

Revised Figures

WE FINALLY have those figures on potential Serramonte - Jefferson - Westmoor "population" straight.

Some readers have expressed confusion over the figures put down in Supt. Edward Morgan's January 22 "Report on School Boundaries and Recommendations Pertaining to a Creative Educational Program" and those later tossed around during a March meeting of the Jefferson High School district trustees.

Morgan points out that figures in his January report — 1235 students at Jeff, 1688 at Westmoor and 1235 at Serramonte — would have been correct IF each of the three schools involved at that time were to house all FOUR classes.

But, Serramonte (to start) will house ONLY freshmen and sophomore classes. This trustee decision required revision of the figures: the ones mentioned in March — 1580 for Jefferson, 1980 for Westmoor and 768 at Serramonte.

These are the figures carried in The Post two weeks ago.

However, trustees also have agreed to allow students who live west of Skyline and north of the watertower on Skyline Drive the option of attending Westmoor (within walking distance) or Serramonte (by busing).

This, of course, will change the figures again.

Directory Solicitation

Promoters continue to flood business offices with invoice-like solicitations for listings in worthless and often non-existent classified directories.

These solicitation forms are similar to IBM cards — holes and all, and they also carry an illustration of an open yellow telephone book which resembles closely that used by the telephone company to firms purchasing advertising space in their Yellow Page, many recipients are under the mistaken impression that these solicitations are invoices for telephone advertising.

The racket has flourished for years in spite of the constant alerts to firms by the Bettter Business Bureaus simply because businessmen and their employees who handle invoices fail to make even a cursory investigation as to whether anyone in the advertising department ordered advertising from the firm whose name appears on the form.

THOUSANDS of established and reputable directories are published in the United States annually. However, many firms, the majority of them operating from Box Office numbers in Southern California, are soliciting fees ranging from $35 to $85 for listings in directories.

The promoters of an Atlanta directory firm, whose office consisted of a Post Office box number, mailed out about one million solicitation forms to firms listed in the Yellow Pages of the phone book. The company printed 3,971 directories, one for each businessman who had paid $45 for a listing.

At this time the postal inspectors have 34 directory promotions under investigaton.

On March 15, an amendment to the Postal Revenue and Federal Salary Act became effective.

SOLICITATIONS that resemble bills may not be sent through the mails unless there is on the face in large and conspicuous type a notice saying "THIS IS A SOLICITATION FOR THE ORDER OF GOODS AND SERVICES AND NOT A BILL, INVOICE OR STATEMENT OR ACCOUNT DUE. YOU ARE NOT UNDER AN OBLIGATION TO MAKE ANY PAYMENTS ON ACCOUNT OF THIS OFFER UNLESS YOU ACCEPT THIS OFFER."

Businessmen receiving solicitations which appear to be bills that do not carry this warning are urged to send the proposal and envelope to Chief Inspector, P.O. Department, Washington, D.C. 20260.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, The Times:

We have believed that representative government is predicated on the assumption that elected or appointed officials, having ALL THE FACTS, will rule in favor of the majority.

A near capacity crowd of Portola Highlands property owners attended a Planning Commission meeting at San Bruno City Hall. We were there to protest rezoning requests which would allow a developer to build a large apartment rental complex at the entrance to our single family area. We are opposed to such a commercial enterprise for many sound and valid reasons. Our ranks were not split, we were a solid front voicing our opinions, and presenting a poll which was nearly unanimous ... more than 400 out of 488 homes, against rezoning. Would your readers believe that the old saying still holds — "You can't fight city hall?" The "MAJORITY" did not get a favorable and final decision from the Planning Commission. A sixty-day extension was again allowed the developer. He seems close to total victory. It is difficult to become "adjusted" or "conditioned" to such decisions.

MR. F. A. HENDRICKSON,
San Bruno.

Action In 2 Tournaments

The second annual Terra Nova Invitational baseball tournament opened at Oceana and Terra Nova campuses Tuesday, with play to continue through Thursday.

Seeing action are teams from Capuchino, Crtstmoor and Hillsdale of the Mid-Peninsula League, Lincoln of San Francisco, Novato of Mari County, Oceana and Terra Nova of the North Peninsula League and Serra of the West Catholic League.

Games are being played at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. at the Pacifica schools.

Meanwhile, South San Francisco high's Easter Invitational will move into second round play today.

The winner of yesterday's El Camino high - Berkeley game is to fact the winner of the Balboa-Vallejo contest at noon contest at noon today, with tht winner of the South San Francisco today, with the winner of the South San Francisco High-Sacred Heart game taking on the winner of the St. Ignatius-Richmond game at 3 p.m.

Consolation games will be played tomorrow and the championship conest will be played at 2 p.m. Saturday at Orange Park.

CONTEST RE-PLAY SLATED

North Peninsula League officials Thursday ruled in favor of Terra Nova High baseball coach Al Figone's protest of the March 22 Terra Nova-Jefferson varsity baseball game.

The game, played at Jeff, was called in the seventh inning due to rain. Jeff was leading at the time, 4-1, and was credited with the victory.

Figone, however, contended that the umpire had not waited long enough to determine whether the rainfall was sufficient to call the game. According to Figone, the umpire waited only ten minutes instead of the required 30.

The game will be restarted at the point of suspension on April 23 at Jefferson.

BOWLING ACTIVITY

The activities at the Westlake Bowl and Serra Bowl in Daly City and Sea Bowl in Pacifica are prepared weekly for the Post by staff members of each business. Inquiries should be directed to them, rather than the Post.

Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Rowena Delucchi again proved that a good secretary can also be a good bowler as she set new high game and series marks in the Lakeside Mixed Fives League last week. Starting with a tremendous 269 game, she rolled a 172 second game then finished with 202 for a great 643 series. Fran kuPzilzi upheld the honor of the men by shoating a 266 game and 574 series.

Bank of America manager Elmer Venturini again led the Westlake Merchants League, this time with a 242 game and 565 series. Donna De Long topped the ladies with a 456 series on a high game of 162.

A Petersen Point Singles Tournament with $350 guaranteed in prizes has been scheduled for April 27 at 11 p.m. Limited to 32 bowlers there will be an eight game competition. Advance reservations may be made at the desk.

Dolores Gillen took leading lady honors in the Tuesday Rebels' League shooting both high game of 225 and a high series of 572. Other high rollers were Carol Barnes with 199—548 and Hazel Eagleton with 191—522.

Two bowlers topped the 600 mark in the Golden Gate Handicap League last week as Rich Andreini shot games of 181-258 and 196 for a 635 series and Dick Evert had 627 on games of 210-200 and 217.

Rose Intaschi, Virgie Lindsey and Emily Drago all topped the 500 mark in the Morning Glory League as Rose shot 189—545, Virgie 188—513 and Emily 184—512. In the split converting department, Anke Petros picked up the 6-7, Rita Bocci the 5-10, Dody Sanguinetti the 3-10, and Jackie De Salvatore the 5-7 twice.

Gary Moeller rolled a 258 game and 674 series to lead the Friday night Westlake 900 Majors for the week.

"Jumpin' Joe" Siriani shot a 626 series with a high game of 218 to lead the Mixed Up Fives League for the week. Second honors went to Mel Cristeni for 203—604 and Jo Runne led the ladies by shooting a 206 game and 528 series.

Georgia Freyslaben with a 547 series on a high game of 220 and Neal Corbett with 213—605 were high for the week in the Southgate Mixed Fives League.

A great 237 game and 655 series gave Dave Morris bowler of the week honors in the Telco League.

The final night of competition in the Philip's Van Orden League will find one-half game separating the first and second place teams.

Rick Dreier has openings for two on the Westlake teams of the Wednesday noon travel league. The 24 team winter league ended last week with the awards banquet at International Joe's enjoyed by all.

Jerry Blodgett led the Southwest Handicap League for the week shooting a 222 game and 637 series.

Another tight race developed in the Westmoor Handicap with a rolloff becoming necessary to decide the league champion.

Scores were high again in the Ladies' 850 Scratch League as Millie Welling bowled games of 246-191 and 201 for a big 638 series and secretary Bev Cassidy posted a 627 series on games of 221-174 and 232.

Art Rud and Bob Pauly were the high rollers in the Lake Merced Handicap last week as Art shot a big 245 game and 624 series while Bob had 222 and 606.

Harry Shain took bowler of the week honors in the B'nai B'rtih League with games of 224-213 and 181 for a 618 series.

Signups are brisk for the srping-summer leagues now forming at Westlake. Many bowlers who missed joining a winter league are joining the shorter summer leagues. With trios, fours, scratch, handicap, etc. type leagues, there is one to fit the need of every bowler.

An even 500 series by June Muegge and Bobbie Perry led the St. Emydius Belles League while high game honors went to Miki Ellis for 197. Anne Tristant converted the 5-10 split and Bernice Poulsen picked up the 3-5-7.

Private Eye Is Arrested In Burglary

A San Francisco private detective was arraigned in Northern Judicial iDstrict Court Monday on burglary charges following his arrest in San Francisco last week.

Allen Harven, 25, who listed his address as 1066 Palou Street, San Francisco, when he was booked into the Daly City jail Sunday, had been sought in connection with an apartment house burglary for more than six months.

Police allege Harven broke into the apartment of Peter Penikila, at 432 Santa Barbara Avenue, Daly City, last October and carted off two mink stoles, a portable TV, radio and musical instruments.

The suspect and his wife had been living in the same building at the time of the robbery and disappeared shortly after, police said.

Following investigation a warrant was issued in November for Harven's arrest.

San Bruno Lighting Up Its City Park

In an attempt to make persons wandering about San Bruno City Park more easily seen at night, city councilmen Monday approved $3,750 worth of lighting changes in the park.

The city manager and city engineer also were directed to study lighting possibilities for Hap Beckner Shelter and its access road.

The spotting of the park lights will allow for back illumination, the city explained, making it easier for police to see park users at night.

DENTAL HEALTH FACTS

Brush After Meals

Brushing after meals not only helps to remove food particles from which decay acids are formed, but also helps to remove the bacteria that are responsible for producing the acid. So get in the habit of brushing after every meal.

Brush Thoroughly

Even if you brush after every meal, success in preventing decay won't be achieved unless you brush thoroughly. Use a good toothbrush that is in good condition.

Please ask your dentist about proper brushing of teeth.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extraction for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth, as dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

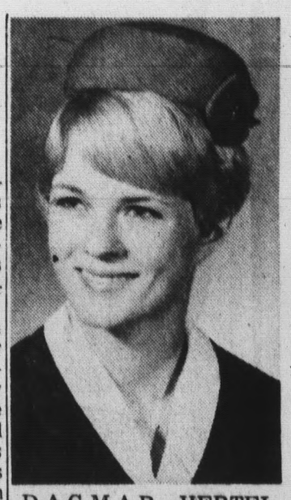
"KIP" CLIFF CRASE, Gold Medal winner in the 1967 International Paralympics was the first athlete entered in the upcoming California Wheelchair Games. Crase has competed all over the world in wheelchair events and recently took home a gold medal and three silver medals from the International Games held in Mandeville, England. The first annual California Wheelchair Games, to be at Gunn High School in Palo Alto April 27 to 28, will include events such as track and field (including slalom races), archery, weightlifting and bowling.

Mrs. Peters To Teach 'Embroidery'

Mrs. Billie Peters, 1419 Sanchez Avenue, Burlingame, has qualified as an instructor in the popular handicraft liquid embroidery and will offer classes without charge to area residents.

The new instructor has been appointed to serve this area for products manufactured by Tri-Chem, Inc., of Belleville, New Jersey, originators of the unique decorative hobby. She will present sessions at local clubs and community meetings as well as at private parties in homes here.

Liquid embroidery is a widely used decorative method which creates colorful design effects on clothing, household linens and all sorts of fabrics by means of specially designed ball - point - tipped tubes of washable color. It produces satisfying results even for the beginner and offers the beauty of painstaking embroidery in a fraction of the traditional time. The method is also applicable to wood, plastic, glass and many other materials.



DAGMAR HERTEL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harald Hertel, 1301 Palos Verdes Drive, San Mateo, this week begins a career as an airline stewardess following her graduation from Western Air Lines Stewardess School.

Passover Meal To be Given

A Passover meal and living Last Supper will be presented on Wednesday and Thursday evenings before Easter at the First Baptist Church of Burlingame, El Camino Real at Palm Drive.

Good Friday services will be conducted from 1 to 2 p.m. in the sanctuary of the church with both Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy participating.

The Rev. Edwin R. Barker, of the Catholic Social Service agency, will share the hour with the Rev. Rowland Edgeworth, the Rev. James McAllister, and Dr. Cecil G. Osborne, ministers of the First Baptist Church.

The traditional Prayer Vigil will begin on Friday at 2 p.m. and continue through midnight.

Girl Scouts Stage Show

Purpose of the Challenge of Social Dependability is for Girl Scouts to prove their ability to present a social event unassisted. To fulfill the requirements of this Challenge, San Mateo Cadette Girl Scout Troop 179 Saturday sponsored a fasion show to coincide with the opening of the swimming pool at the San Mateo Highlands Recreation Center at 1851 Lexington Avenue. The girls planned the event and did all the decorating and modeling themselves, as well as providing and serving the refreshments.

Theme for the poolside show was "Spring is Here," and featured spring fashions for all occasions provided by Alma's, of Crystal Springs Shopping Center.

CHUTISTS' BADGE

FT. BENNING, Ga. — Army Private First Class V. Doug Davenport, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Davenport, 1303 Vista Grande, Millbrae, received a Parachutist Badge March 16 upon completion of the Infantry School's three-week airborne course at Ft. Benning, Ga.

His training, which included five jumps from a C-130 airplane flying 170 miles an hour at an altitude of 1,250 feet, qualified him as a parachutist. He also underwent strenuous physical conditioning.

Big Jump Reported In S.M. Building

San Mateo city building permits soared by a whopping $1,058,975 last month, compared to the same month a year ago, reported Building Official Jack Watt.

The total for the month was $1,399,673, compared to $340,698 for March, 1967.

This brings the total to date for the year up to $2,374,846, compared to $1,057,356 for the same three-month period a year ago.

Major increases were reflected in almost every building permit category last month, reported Watt. These included 10 permits for new homes, representing $218,000 in value for the city, 106 permits for alterations and repairs of single family homes for $158,370. One new commercial building was added for $120,000, and 20 permits were approved for alterations or repairs of commercial structures, totalling $205,099.

Altogether there were 18 new construction permits for $1,013,900, compared to 10 for $107,700 for March, 1967, reported Watt.

Employer Forms Due

Tuesday, April 30, is deadline date for filing a contribution return and report of disability insurance wages, form DE 7003, for the first quarter of 1968, Robert E. Hesky, district tax administrator for the State Department of Employment in San Mateo today reminded employers of agricultural employees and nonprofit or district hospital employees.

Penalty and interest will be charged if the report is filed after the deadline, Hesky said.

Employers who need help in preparing their returns and wage reports may contact an auditor at 3518 South El Camino Real, San Mateo.

Renault, Inc. reported recently that 1967 was its best sales year since 1963 for U.S. retail sales of Renault. Renault closed 1967 with a 59.2 percent increase in sales over 1966, having recorded a steady month-to-month rise throughout the year.

Renault is maintaining their steady pace in 1968. The January total retail sales figure of 1602 is ten units above the corresponding month in 1967.

This first month of 1968 marks Renault's 17th consecutive month of sales increases and indicates a promising trend in favor of further sales successes throughout the year.

Unless some kind of restrictive legislation intervenes, imported cars will capture about 9.5 per cent of the American passenger car market, Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., president of Fiat-Roosevelt Motors Inc., sole U.S. importer-distributor for the huge Italian automaker, predicted recently.

"The imports will sell between 800,000 and 850,000 cars here this year unless protectionists succeed in imposing some broad spectrum restriction on products from overseas," the former Undersecretary of Commerce declared.

Roosevelt revised upward from 25,000 his preliminary prediction of Fiat's 1968 share of import sales. "I think we can sell 27,000-30,000 for calendar 1968 and 45,000-50,000 in 1969," he declared.

Roosevelt noted that the Fiat dealer organization numbers about 445 after a net gain of 7 due to a vigorous upgrading program. He said that sales per dealer increased 100 per cent in 1967 and expected that this statistic would increase for 1968, too. Fiat hopes to have almost 500 dealers by the end of 1968, and between 550 and 575 by the end of 1969, he added.

"The penetration of the import to 9.5 per cent is because U.S. makers have chosen not to fill the gap under $2,000, either because it's a relatively small market if divided up among the U.S. automakers or because it's uneconomical to do it with cars produced domestically," Roosevelt continued.

Fiat offers a complete line of popular priced imports for 1968. The seven Fiat models for 1968 include the 124 Coupe, the 124 Spider, the 850 Spider and Coupe, the 850 Sedan, the 124 Sedan and the 124 Station Wagon.

In addition to manufacturing automobiles, the Fiat factory manufactures jet aircraft, diesel engines, nuclear reactors, agricultral equipment, buses, trucks, and railroad equipment.

The Austin America, a new styled sedan designed to meet American demands for a second family car, was introduced recently by British Motor Holdings (U.S.A.) Inc., worlds largest distributor of imported sports cars.

The Austin America comes equipped with a fully automatic four-speed transmission and heater-defroster. The transmission system also gives the driver the option of manually shifting through the gears.

Powered by a four-cylinder 1,275 c.c. engine, the two-door Austin America delivers up to 30 miles to the gallon. Its 10 gallon fuel tank gives a range of up to 300 miles at cruising speeds in the 60's. Acceleration from a standstill to 60 m.p.h. can be accomplished in less than 18 seconds.

The car's roominess is heightened by a combination of wheel positioning transverse mounted engine and front wheel drive. Since the four wheels are at the extreme corners of the vehicle there is no intrusion into the passenger area. Front wheel drive eliminates the usual transmission hump, while the transverse mounted engine utilizes just 18 inches of the car's overall 12-foot length.

Safety features include sun visors, four-way hazard lights, lap and shoulder safety belts, two-speed windshield wipers, windshield washers and outside rear-view mirror.

Kenneth Hicks of Neufeld Motors, Inc., located at 281 El Camino Real, recently elected a "Fellow" of the Volkswagen Sales Guild, travels to Lake Tahoe with his wife this weekend to attend a dinner-dance honoring Guild members from northern California, northern Nevada and Utah VW dealerships.

While there, Hicks will receive a Sales Guild plaque and gold lapel pin from John E. Reilly, General Sales Manager for Volkswagen of America, Inc. Guests at the awards banquet at the Sahara Tahoe Hotel will include 44 other newly elected members from the three-state region.

David Neufeld, president of Neufeld Motors, Inc. said that Guild membership "recognizes distinguished achievement by VW sales personnel during the previous year." He explained that membership is based "on vehicle sales accomplishments and the quality of assistance which salesmen give VW owners before, during and after their purchases."

Hicks has been in the automobile industry for 14 years, is a native of Michigan and presently lives in Belmont with his wife Virginia and their two children. He has been with the Volkswagen organization for 4 years.

A Family Files Action Against Painting Contractor

The parents and sons of the divorced wife of South San Francisco grading contractor Arthur (Buzz) Haskins filed suit on her behalf Thursday charging that Elwood T. Stopper, a South San Francisco painting "destroy" her "physically, mentally and otherwise." Stopper is named as defendant in the suit.

The complaint, filed in Superior Court in Redwood City by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ricci and Arthur and Richard Haskins, alleges that Stopper is attempting "to appropriate all the moneys, assets and other properties received or to be received" by Mrs. Bonnie Melba Haskins, 45, from her divorce settlement.

According to the lawsuit, Mrs. Haskins received a million-dollar settlement and $2,000 monthly alimony when she divorced Haskins last August. As part of the settlement, she is to receive $250,000 from the sale of the Darby property in Colma, which is in escrow.

The suit charges that since the divorce Stopper "has undertaken a course to destroy the said Bonnie Melba Haskins, both physically, mentally and otherwise, by the use of violence . . . and other influences, including excessive use of alcohol.

It is alleged that Stopper has obtained $30,000 from Mrs. Haskins, including $11,000 to settle a former divorce.

The suit asks the court to order Stopper to stay away from Mrs. Haskins, to refrain from all acts complained of and to refrain "from in any way interfering with the rights of the plaintiffs in seeking medical care and hospitalization" for Mrs. Haskins.

The complaint also asks that Title Insurance and Trust Company, which is handling the escrow on the Darby property sale, be restrained from releasing any money to Mrs. Haskins "while she is under medical care or subject to the influence of the defendant."

Punitive damages of $250,000 are sought from Stopper, as well as $25,000 in fees for the plaintiff's attorney, Thomas L. Bocci.

Cab Driver Is Robbed

Yellow Cab Driver Ray Bland was robbed of $27 at knifepoint in Daly City shortly after midnight last Friday by a passenger.

Police said Bland told them the man entered the cab on the east side of Daly City and directed him to a spot near the corner of Southgate and Montrose avenues on the other side of the city.

When the cab stopped the passenger leaned over and put a knife against Bland's throat, demanding all his cash.

The man fled on foot, police said.

SSF High Senior Wins City Science Fair Grand Prize

Mark Heckman, a senior at South San Francisco High School, was named grand prize winner recently in the 1968 city-wide Science Fair sponsored by the South San Francisco Unified School District.

A total of $250 in cash, plus hundreds of ribbons and certificates, were awarded to participating students.

Mark's entry, among the 250 projects reviewed by the judges in the seventh annual fair, was "The Theory of Flight." He will receive $50 and has become eligible to enter the Bay Area Science Fair as a representative of the school district.

Hoffman Is New Ruler For S.S.F. Elks Lodge

John Hoffman

John Hoffman is the newly elected Exalted Ruler of the South San Francisco Elks Lodge, No. 2091.

A resident of South San Francisco for 15 years, Hoffman was appointed to his first chair in that community's Elks Club for the 1964-65 term.

His father, Harry B. Hoffman was the first Exalted Ruler of the Elks Club in Sonora, where John was born in 1920, and also was a treasurer of the California Elks Association and was a Grand Lodge Loyal Knight.

John and his wife Margaret have two daughters, Patricia, 19, and Susan, 15.

Hoffman joined the San Francisco Elks Lodge No. 3, in 1959, transferring to South San Francisco with the completion of the new Elks' building there.

Spilled Gas Starts Blaze At Pacifica

The garage of a Pacifica residence was slightly damaged when a can of spilled gasoline was ignited by a water heater Wednesday, fire department spokesmen said.

Firemen said Mrs. Helen Moore, 447 Firecrest, telephoned the station at 2:15 and reported her son had spilled the gasoline while refueling a power mower.

A firefighting unit was dispatched to the residence to wash down the garage, but Mrs. Moore called back two minutes later and told firemen "the garage is burning."

Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze, and damage was restricted to the garage.

Miracle Coating Eliminates House Painting

American United Chemical Company has developed a remarkable product for exterior walls that virtually eliminates outside painting for many years to come and is factory guaranteed for 15 years. This product called GUARD-COTE, combines the long-lasting properties of fiberglass, asbestos, mica and perlite to make a wall surface that resists all climate extremes.

Throughout the Country

School boards have found textured coatings so economical and lasting over the past several years that they are now specifying this type of material for school buildings.

Many thousands of textured coating applications have been made on homes, commercial and industrial buildings throughout the world, and these buildings have remained in perfect condition after more than 15 years exposure in all weather extremes.

The United States Government and large corporation, such as Shell Oil Company, Pacific Telephone Company, and American Telephone and Telegraph Company, are using textured coatings. This remarkable exterior surfacing provides waterproofing, insulation, and beauty, far outlasting any ordinary paint.

GUARD-COTE comes in 12 beautiful decorator colors—and does not change the structural lines of the building. Actually it adds beauty to any home or structure and increases its value.

Water-proofs, Insulates, Fire Retardent

GUARD-COTE has the additional advantages of waterproofing and through the use of Silicones, a modern day scientific advance, a water repellent "blanket" envelops the entire building so that no moisture can penetrate and damage the interior of the home. Through the use of fiberglass and perlite, highly efficient insulating material, the building becomes cooler in the summer and warmer in the winter.

Factory Guaranteed

Every GUARD-COTE job is registered and factory guaranteed for 15 full years material replacement against chipping, flaking or peeling. It fuses itself to the wall surface to a thickness 15 to 20 times that of normal paint.

No Obligation

Applications of GUARD-COTE are being made in this area by MORSE BROTHERS, exclusive applicators of this remarkable product for Northern California. Free information on how easily you may have GUARD-COTE applied at low bank terms with no down payment may be obtained by calling collect PLaza 6-1341 (24-hour service) or by mailing coupon below.

Westmoor Girl at Human Rights Conference, Asilomar

Hoping to meet people with different backgrounds and to have fun, Westmoor student Gail Bloom has journeyed to Asilomar to attend the eleventh Human Rights Conference "Community or Chaos" sponsored by the American Friends' Service Committee. Gail will be among 400 Northern California high school students chosen to participate in this conference, April 9 to 11.

Through its world-wide programs of relief, rehabilitation, community relations, institutions, and seminars, American Friends' Service Committee attempts to "relieve human suffering and to see nonviolent solutions to conflicts — personal, national, and international." This organization is supported entirely by contributors.

To deal with the subject of "community" as a goal for Afro-Americans, Mexican-Americans, and middle-class American youth, American Friends' Service Committee has invited three guests to speak to the students: David E. Smith, M.D., M.S., medical director of Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic; Cesar Chavez, president of United Farm Workers' Organizing Committee, and John Lewis, associate to Southern Regional Council, Atlanta, Ga.

Other students whom Gail will be meeting at the seminar will be coming from public and private schools from rural and urban communities, and from other countries. All races, faiths, and economic groups will be represented. By having varied students with different interests all join together, it is the AFSC's objective to let the students become informed and alerted about the problems facing the community and each other.

Gail was selected by the AFSC on the basis of her essay, explaining why she would like to go to the conference. Having lived in Westlake for ten years, Gail would like to meet young people who are not typical of being "middle class."

A sophomore at Westmoor, Gail is taking Latin-American History and enriched world history, which have "given her a better understandig of different cultures." In the future, Gail plans for a career in social science.

Doctor in The Kitchen

by W. W. Bauer, M.D.
Consultant
National Dairy Council

This may never have happened but even so, it is a good story, and right in character:

A mother was preparing her sulky little boy to attend a birthday party for one of his playmates.

"I don' wanna go!" he said, jerking himself away from the maternal hands trying to adjust his shirttail.

"It'll be fun, darling," mother replied with patient insincerity. "You'll see. There'll be good things to eat, too."

"Will they be good for me?"

"Of course, dear."

"I don' wanna go . . . it'll be carrots!"

It didn't turn out to be carrots after all, because the hostesse had learned how to make children like party food and still not stuff themselves with too much sweet stuff or refreshments that contribute little to nutricion except calories and spoil the appetite for a good dinner in the bargain.

The kids had a ball with hot dogs or individual pizzas. They had a choice of strawberry, chocolate or plain milk shakes, plus nibbles from a lazy Susan with salted nuts, raisins, several kinds of cookies, chunks of cheddar cheese on colored toothpicks, and shiny red apples.

If they didn't eat a lot of dinner that night, it mades no difference provided the parents inquired what the party snacks had been and made allowances. Children will eat and like many kinds of truly nutritious foods in a festive atmosphere, if they are not bothered with too much talk about what's good for them. Even grown people have been known to eat as they please rather than as they should.

There is no need to eliminate sweets entirely from a special occasion. Popcorn confections with molasses and nuts are popular, and are quite in order if not overdone. Advantage can be taken of the natural sweets in bananas and other fruits. Dates and prunes can be stuffed with cream cheese. Peanut butter and cream cheese stuffing can turn a celery stalk into a tempting bite. Honey added to peanut butter makes a fine sandwich, so does jelly or jam.

No party is really a PARTY without ice cream. In many flavors, with various toppings, and for really fancy parties, like the Fourth of July, ice cream in appropriate molds is the touch that makes the party perfect. A bit of cake on the side adds the nutritional value of eggs and milk as well as the sweet touch.

Of course, not all of these belong to one party, but who's going to stop with one? Use new ideas the next time, and have fun!

Make Two-Crust Lemon Pie For an Adventure in Food

If you've never tasted a two-crust lemon pie, you've got a fascinating food adventure in store.

Lemons—peel and all—are thinly sliced and sprinkled with sugar. Then eggs are added and the mixture is poured into a pie shell. After dotting with margarine, the top crust is adjusted and the pie is baked until golden brown. The pie should sit on a wire rack until it is cool, then it should be served. We found that if this dessert is refrigerated, the lemon slices tend to harden and become chewy.

Reactions to this pie vary. Some eaters say they like it because it is quite sweet; others because it's quite tart. Our guess is that taste buds vary widely in response to lemon. Moreover, the sweet school likes the pie served with unsweetened whipped cream or whipped cream cheese; the tart school says it should be accompanied by hard sauce.

This recipe was adapted from one in an interesting book called "The Shaker Cook Book—Not by Bread Alone" by Caroline B. Piercy Crown. About this dessert Mrs. Piercy says, "This is yet another very old lemon pie recipe which the early Ohio Shakers fashioned frequently."

TWO-CRUST LEMON PIE

2 medium lemons
2 cups sugar
Flaky pastry for a 2-crust 9-inch pie
4 large eggs
1 tablespoon margarine

Wash and dry lemons; slice paper thin; remove seeds but do not remove the peel. Place sliced lemon in a mixing bowl and sprinkle with sugar. Toss with a fork until well mixed. Let stand at least two hours.

Roll out pastry for bottom crust and use to line a 9-inch glass pie plate.

In a medium mixing bowl beat the eggs until well mixed and foamy. Stir into lemon mixture. Pour into unbaked pastry shell. Dot with margarine. Roll out pastry for top crust; cut slits in it to allow steam to escape and place over pie filling. Trim pastry if necessary. Fold edges of both crusts under; seal and flute.

Bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven for 15 minutes; turn oven temperature to moderate (350 degrees) and continue baking for 30 to 35 minutes or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean.

Place pie on wire rack until cool and then serve with unsweetened whipped cream, whipped cream cheese or Hard Sauce.

HARD WAUCE

6 tablespoons margarine
1 pound confctioners' sugar, sifted
1 egg
Dash of salt
Vanilla or light rum to taste

In a medium mixing bowl, beat the margarine. Gradually add about 1½ cups of the confectioners' sugar, beating until blended. Add the egg; beat well. Gradually beat in the remaining sugar and the salt. Beat until mixture is light and fluffy, adding the desired flavoring. Cover and chill. Makes about two cups.

Ginger Top

Pineapple and ginger topping is a tasty accompaniment for pancakes and waffles. Simply mix 1 (9-ounce) can crushed pineapple with ½ teaspoon cornstarch, ¼ cup crystallized ginger, ½ teaspoon lemon juice and 2 tablespoons butter. Cook until the consistency of thin cream sauce.

Season For Artichokes Now Here

It's the season for artichokes!
Artichokes Sesame Butter
Ham-Potato Casserole
Celery
Vanilla Ice Cream with Strawberries

SESAME BUTTER

¼ cup sesame seeds
½ cup (¼-pound stick) butter
2 teaspoons lemon juice

In a small saucepan over low heat toast the sesame seeds, stirring constantly. Add butter and lemon juice; stir until butter melts. Serve at once, in a small container such as a Chinese teacup without handles with four medium artichokes that have been cooked, drained and kept hot. Artichoke leaves are pulled one by one from base and the tender fleshy end dipped in the sesame butter, then pulled between the teeth to scoop up the flashy part. The thistlelike portion at the center is removed with knife and fork and the heart is eaten by cutting and dipping in the sesame butter. Makes four servings.

Oven-Easy Meal-in-One

Noodles Florentine is an oven-easy, meal-in-one casserole. Brown 1 pound ground beef; pour off fat. Stir in 2 cans (8 ounces each) OR 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce with tomato bits, ½ cup sour cream and 1 teaspoon thyme. In an oiled 1½-quart casserole place 4 ounces wide noodles, cooked and drained. Spread meat mixture over noodles; top noodles with 1 package (10 ounces) frozen spinach, cooked and drained, then with 1 package (6 ounces) sliced Mozzarella cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Makes four servings.

Bake Chicken An Easy Way

What an easy way to bake chicken!

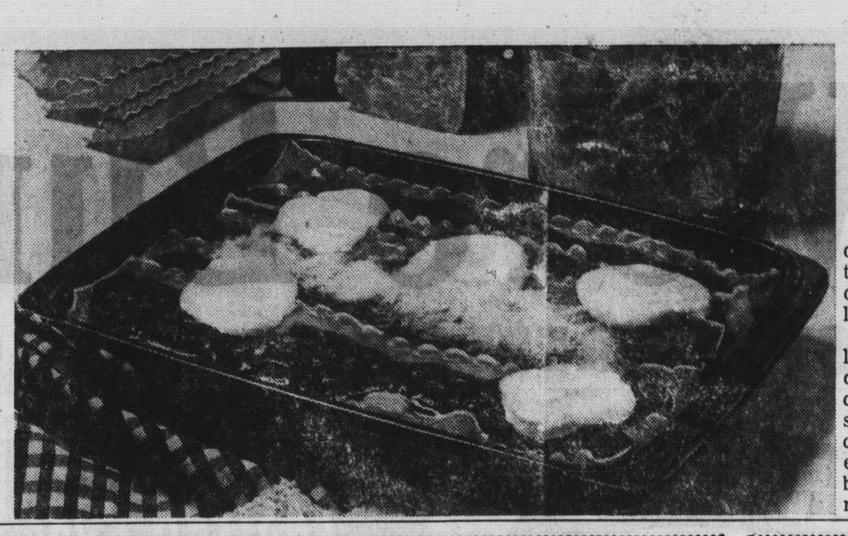
Baked Chicken Rippled Noodles
Green Peas Cole Slaw
Bread Pudding Beverage

BAKED CHICKEN

1-3 cup unsifted regular flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
1 teaspoon paprika
½ cup (¼-pound stick) butter
2½ pound broiler-fryer cut in 10 pieces, washed and drained

Turn oven to 400 degrees. In a medium-size brown paper or plastic bag, mix together the flour, salt, pepper, garlic salt and paprika. Add chicken. Close top; shake well to coat chicken with as much of flour mixture as possible. In a glass baking dish about 12 by 8 by 2 inches, in the oven, melt the butter.

Place chicken, skin side down, in dish. Bake about 20 minutes. Turn chicken. Sprinkle any left-over seasoned flour over chicken. Baste with butter in baking dish; continue baking until chicken is brown and tender — about 25 minutes. Mix the butter and drippings in the baking dish with the cooked rippled noodles and serve with the chicken. Makes four servings.



Lasagne Served at a Buffet For Plenty of Company

If you've never made lasagna, or want to try a new recipe for this great Italian dish, we recommend this one. It makes a lot, plenty for company.

But prepare yourself: This lasagna takes time — time to collect the interesting ingredients, time to make its two sauces and time to cook the curly wide noodles and put everything together. Only the baking time is short — about 30 minutes.

Americans have taken lasagna to their hearts, so this is fine offering for a buffet supper. A big salad, crusty Italian bread and red wine can accompany it. For dessert you might choose an Italian-style rum cake.

TWO-SAUCE LASAGNA

1 package 1-pound curly lasagna about 19 to 23 pieces
Tomato Meat Sauce — see recipe below.
¼ pound 1-cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
½ pound mozzarella cheese, thinly sliced
Cream Sauce — See recipe below.
1 pound bulk or 1 container 15-ounces ricotta cheese

Cook the lasagna according to package directions. Turn into a colander to drain. Run hot tap water over lasagna pieces if they stick together.

Into a five-quart baking dish, 16 by 9½ by 2½ inches or a roasting pan about 17 by 11 by 2¼ inches, pour one-third of the hot tomato meat sauce.

Lay one-third of the lasagna pieces crosswise in the pan over the sauce, doubling where necessary and turning under any upstanding edges.

Spread one-third of the remaining tomato meat sauce over the lasagna; sprinkle with half the Parmesan cheese.

Top with six or seven lasagna pieces as above. Arrange mozzarella cheese over lasagna.

Spread hot cream sauce over the mozzarella.

Top with remaining lasagna pieces as above.

Spoon dollops of ricotta over the lasagna.

Spread with remaining tomato meat sauce. Sprinkle with remaining Parmesan cheese.

Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until bubbling and cheese is melted — about 30 minutes.

Makes 10 average servings.

TOMATO MEAT SUCE

¼ cup olive oil
1 medium onion, finely chopped
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 pound lean ground chuck beef
½ pound lean ground pork
1 can (1 pound, 12 ounces) tomatoes
2 cans each 6 ounces tomato paste
1 tablespoon salt
Pepper to taste
1 teaspoon dried crumbled oregano
1 bay leaf

In a 10-inch skillet heat the olive oil. Add the onion, garlic, beef and pork. Cook over moderate heat, crumbling meat with fork tines into tiny particles, until meat loses its red color. Transfer to a five-quart saucepot or Dutch oven not black iron. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer, covered, for 30 minutes; uncover and continue simmering, stirring occasionally and breaking up tomatoes, for 30 minutes. Remove bay leaf. Skim fat from top if necessary. Or make sauce in advance; cover and refrigerate; remove hardened fat; reheat so sauce will be hot when lasagna is assembled.

CREAM SAUCE

¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
2 cups milk

In a one-quart saucepan over low heat, melt ¼ cup butter or margarine; stir in ¼ cup flour. Add two cups milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens and bubbles. Or make sauce ahead; cover and refrigerate; reheat so sauce will be hot when lasagna is assembled.

Shortbread Type Cookie From N.Y.

A good cook in New Rochelle, N.Y., contributes this recipe for a shortbread-type cookie.

Jean Watson's Almond Crescents
Tea or Coffee

JEAN WATSON'S ALMOND CRESCENTS

1 cup vegetable shortening
¼ pound (1 stick) butter
Confectioners' sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla
3 cups unsifted regular flour (stir to aerate before measuring)
1 package (6 ounces) natural whole almonds, blanched and ground fine

In a large mixing bowl cream the shortening, butter, 6 tablespoons confectioners' sugar, vanilla and the salt. Gradually work in the flour, then the almonds. Using 1 level tablespoon of the mixture for each, form into small balls; form each ball into a crescent shape. Place 1 inch apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake at 350 degrees until only very lightly browned — about 15 minutes. With a wide spatula carefully remove to wax paper sprinkled with confectioners' sugar; using a fine-mesh strainer, sift more confectioners' sugar over the cookies. Store in a tightly covered tin container. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Join The "Clan" And Dine At Scotty Campbell's

Mary Lou Francis, back from a Southland vacation, is once again at the hosting helm of her Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City. Co-owners Theresa (she's Mary Lou's sister) and Bud Urban have taken off for Wisconsin to oversee their resort for the busy Summer season.

Bright Lights has received many letters of thanks from satisfied Scotty Campbell's customers. If you haven't joined the "clan," there's no better time like the present to try the prime ribs, steaks, seafood or spare rib "dinner of your life." Entertainment and ad libs furnished by "Blackie," the bartender.

Albert Christensen of Fosters Original Pancake and Chicken House, located across from Hillsdale Shopping Center, informs your Bright Lighter that he hasn't missed a breakfast of Fosters six tender buttermilk pancakes since he joined the organization — and that was 37 years ago. That's a lot of "batter," no matter how you mix it.

An early alert: Vince Licata's Italian and sea food restaurant will not be open on Easter Sunday. However, the restaurant will be open Saturday and the Monday following Easter.

The V.I.P. Cocktail Lounge will be a swingin' place, indeed, on Friday and Saturday evenings ,what with the entertaining Union Square Trio playing for dancing.

Now serving both luncheon and dinner, many a business deal is signed, sealed and delivered in this smart room. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres add to the relaxed cocktail hours.

Because of a recent "catch" of 6,000 pounds of Halibut, the Black Angus Chuck Wagon will feature the fish every day of the week. Besides numerous other meat and fish entrees, the "All you can eat" smorgasbord will offer either Shrimp Fritters or Prawn Puffs on a daily basis. Remember, the price of $1.75 buys as much food from the chuck wagon as you can handle.

The Villa Hotel's Coffee Shop is still running the "Daily Specials," which caused such a sensation when first originated, a few months back. Most reasonable prices, different entrees are featured each night of the week. Tomorrow's special, for example, is Roast Beef. Served with a tossed green salad, whipped potatoes and vegetables, the price for the complete meal is $2.

Enjoy a Festive Easter Holiday and Dine Out

EASTER SUNDAY, being one of the big dine-out events of the year, you have few excuses to keep the home ovens burning. Scan Bright Lights' restaurant and club advertisements and prepare for a festive family gathering and feast. Special breakfast and dinner menus will be offered for the Easter "dine-out parade." And, by all means, please make reservations NOW. A Joyous Easter to all. L.J.

EMERSON MURFEE, "skipper" of the Villa Chartier, Lanai and Villa Liquor Store, is back from a fishing trip in the Mexican territory and is looking forward to the happy Easter holiday crowds who always flock to this dining center. Only on Easter Sunday does the enterprising restaurant owner feature a special breakfast, as well as a holiday dinner menu at the Villa Chartier. Which means, of course, reservations are in order. There will also be a child's plate for both meal-time occasions. Breakfast will be served from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; dinner from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Walter Glinsky, your friendly Villa Chartier host, will be delighted to prepare special dishes and salads, for which he is most famous. Popular Bernard Abrams is also back at his reservation post at the exotic Lanai which will be serving from 5 p.m. on Easter Sunday.

EMMETT KELLY JR., "The Clown Prince of Pantomime," who amused millions at the Kodak Pavillion of the New York World's Fair, was a last-weekend guest at Fred and Jerry Rapp's South San Francisco Holiday Inn. In the Bay Area while on a nation wide hospital tour, the busy Mr. Kelly left early Sunday morning for St. Petersburg, Florida, where he will reside for 10 days before returning to San Francisco. . . . Chris Lunn's Folk and Blues Workshop of Palo Alto will perform a unique concert near the ocean at the Bach Dancing and Dynamite Society, Inc., located north of Half Moon Bay, from 2:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 7. Noted for its presentation of top Bay Area jazz and classical musicians on Sunday afternoons, this marks the first time the Society, directed By Pete Douglas, featured Folk or blues music. Call 326-3890 or 726-4143 for information.

Fred Rapp

DON DIANDA, head man at Doros restaurant in San Francisco, was born in Lucca, Italy, and he takes pride in using the olive oil from that city with his gourmet dishes . . . As a baseball season special, Joe and Lou Ercoli are featuring a Giant New York Steak at their famous Leaning Tower restaurant in South City. Tabbed at $4.50, the "Giant" steak is bound to "hit a home run" with devout fans who frequent this restaurant . . . All drinks, whether mixed or straight, will cost a mere 13 cents during the special thirteenth anniversary celebration to be held Monday, April 15, through Thursday, April 18, at The Iron Horse in Maiden Lane, just off Kearny. Get your ticket for this special event from owners Leo Giorgetti and Sam Marconi, who invite you to join in the celebration. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres served nightly. . . .

CELEBRATING A BIRTHDAY or anniversary? The same fine food and service prevailing in the dining area of Joe's of Hillsdale is available in their banquet rooms. Not only is Joe's of Hillsdale a meeting place for San Mateo working girls and countless shoppers, but people from far and near come to Art Petri's restaurant in the heart of the Hillsdale Shopping Center to enjoy its menu suggestions and fashion shows . . . The Falchi brothers are now in the banquet business! Guy and Al, industrious owners of the quaint High Iron restaurant in Pacifica, are now taking reservations for banquets and private parties. Several coastside business groups have already signed up to gather here on a regular basis . . . The Easter Sunday egg hunt at Stickney's of San Mateo is well worth looking into, what with gifts galore and an Easter Brunch priced at just $2.75 for adults; kiddies, 6 to 12, $1.45; under 6, free. Make this a family must; phone 344-6311 for reservations.

Pays Off at Lew Lehr's Pay-By-Weight Idea

LEW LEHR'S STEAK HOUSE in San Francisco's Marina is remarkable in several ways—one of them is that it is one of the very few restaurants that week after week, month after month and year after year continues to surpass previous business records. The high quality of the steaks, the pay-by-weight idea, the excellent service and the friendliness of Lew and Edith Lehr and their crew are the factors that have made Lehr's such a success . . . "Texas-style" Enchiladas are a specialty of chef Robert Perez at Menlo Park's El Patio Mexican restaurant. A combination of beef and cheese enchiladas, the tasty three-layer Mexican dish is topped with onions, cheese, two eggs and the El Patio's special enchilada sauce. . . .

EASTER DINING will be a festive occasion at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe in South San Francisco. Service from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Easter Sunday, and the regular dinner prices will be in effect. Virginia Baked Ham, Fried Chicken and Prime Roast Beef are the entrees, which will include soup, salad, paste, two vegetables and a bottle of wine. Reservations are required, reports manager Chuck Winstead . . . Thousands of visitors to San Francisco's famed Fisherman's Wharf are fascinated with the magnificent, new plaque serving as a silent greeting committee. The project was chairmaned by Augie Rosasco of the Exposition Fish Grotto, whose committee is to be congratulated for a job well done . . . Chef Bill Marsh is the resident kitchen genius at the King's Bowl Blue Peacock restaurant in Millbrae. His creations range from daily specials to an appetizing Merchants Lunch. Bill's famous Chef's Salad is a true palate delight.

Reichelt's services are available to male members of the club as well as non-members. A woman attendant is also on hand for ladies on their club days . . . Hardly a night goes by at Belmont Chuck Wagon but three or four guests tell host Al Malatesta, "You ought to open for lunch." Well, Al has taken the hint. Within two or three weeks, Belmont Chuck Wagon will start serving lunches Monday through Friday. The luncheon menu will feature "mile high" carved meat sandwiches, luscious salads and savory hot dishes, with complete waiter service. Prices? Moderate.

LOOK FOR LUCIEN SABELLA, alert owner of A. Sabella's on Fisherman's Wharf, to bring his yearly Halloween parties back to "life," this Fall. Before the fire that gutted his former A. Sabella's restaurant, a few years ago, the party was a much looked-forward-to event. Guests wearing the most outstanding costumes were awarded prizes. Enjoyed a chat with Lelalee and William Stiltz, who, as past Halloween costume winners, were pleased to hear of Lucien's funfest plans . . . A luncheon treat hard to match would be the Luciano Special Sandwich as served at Fred Martinelli's Oliver's in South San Francisco. It's a combination of salami, Swiss cheese, ham and a special Oliver's dressing served with French fries . . . Chef Karl Faigle of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel will arrange special Easter Menus for "bunny day" breakfast, brunch and dinner guests, who make the hotel dining room their Easter Sunday headquarters.

Jumbo Squab Frank Torres Menu Special

Frank Torres will have his Montara Beach Hotel staff ready, willing and able to serve you on Easter Sunay. As your finger runs down the list of entrees on the Torres Dinner Deluxe, you'll note Roast Jumbo Squab with Peruvian Rice (served a la carte, too)). which is a "Bright Lights" favorite. As another holiday treat, Banana or Apple Fritters are "something else."

'Explosive Situation' At Jefferson High Averted

By WILL E. THOMAS

Over half of Jefferson High School's some 200 Negroes staged a tension-provoking "walkout" on the Daly City campus Friday, but violence and major incidents apparently were avoided.

School officials, recognizing a short-fused atmosphere and in an attempt to thwart possible racial clashes on campus, dismissed classes following the day's first period, around 9:30 a.m., while a Negro leader, the Rev. Howard Bryant, "calmed" a mob of some 100 Negro pupils meeting on the school's baseball field.

Later, a Negro employe of a Mission Street auto dealer was credited with staving off a "fairly explosive situation," as a group of 50 to 80 Negroes — mostly girls — headed north on Mission to catch a bus that would take them to San Francisco's Civic Center, where memorial services for the Rev. Martin Luther King, slain Thursday in Memphis, were being conducted.

No campus damage was reported, according to principal Ernest Ribera. However police reported two broken windows on nearby San Diego Avenue residences.

The atmosphere on campus was described as "kind of tense" at the first class bell in the morning, but there was "nothing near a riot," emphasized Ribera.

He said that "100-plus" Negroes — there are about 200 enrolled at Jefferson — were "milling around, walking through halls; not going to class."

"There was no violence or incidents," Ribera pointed out.

"We had mainly, I would say, a walkout," he said.

Some of the Negro students, however, did go to their first classes, but many of those who did not report chose to walk up and down the halls, encouraging Negroes both in and out of class to not attend, or leave, Ribera explained.

After a conference with top level aides and Reverend Bryant, Ribera decided to dismiss classes after the first period — about 9:30 a.m.

Ribera said he and his administrative staff thought it wise to dismiss classes rather than to risk possible violence in the midst of both Negro and white tension over the Thursday assasination of King, a non-violence advocate.

"Hostility," Ribera declared, "wasn't overt as to school or anything else. People were just upset, confused — you name it! — over King's assassination."

Ribera said he had given the Negro students the choice of going to class or leaving.

He said he "didn't order" them to class. He said the way he put it to Negro pupils was, "If you're too upset to attend classes today, I'd appreciate it if you went home."

Over 100 of the Negro students gathered on the baseball field, though school officials had offered the cafeteria and had set up a public address system there if the youngsters wanted to meet in the facility.

It was out on the ball field that one of the Negro community's leaders, the Rev. Howard Bryant, pastor of the Second Baptist Church and director of the Daly City Information and Referral Center, "did the best job I've ever seen him do," Ribera said.

Whatever Bryant said to the large group of youngsters served to "calm them down" for the moment, Ribera said.

Reverend Bryant described the incident on the part of the Negroes as a "spontaneous reaction' 'to the King slaying.

He said that "dastardly act" led to the near-riot conditions Friday at Jefferson, where the students he explained, were expressing "their indignation over what happened" in Memphis.

Bryant didn't recall exactly what he had said to the large group of Negroes on the ball field, except that it involved to some degree "arguments" with student leaders of the so-called "walkout."

After the students left campus there were no major incidents, although another Negro, identified as Dewey Rodgers, an employe of Adams Buick, was credited by Ribera with "doing a swell job" in "reaching" a group of Negroes walking north on Mission Street.

Assistant Daly City police chief Roy Beecher also had praise for Rodger's role in that "fairly explosive situation."

Led by Rodgers, the youngsters later boarded a San Francisco Muni bus at the S.F.-Daly City line, presumably to attend San Francisco Civic Center activities, Beecher said.

From 50 to 80 pupils were in the group, Beecher said, citing information received from Lt. Philip LaBruzzo, the Daly City police department's community relations officer.

LaBruzzo was commended by principal Ribera for his cooperation in assisting educators in handling the campus tension.

uniformed patrolmen who "responded" while the group of students walked toward the San Francisco municipal buses on Mission.

Derdzinski Paintings At Library

Paintings by Janine Derdzinski will constitute a one man show at the Westlake Branch of the Daly City Public Library.

Mrs. Derdzinski's work includes landscapes, portraits and still life. One of special interest is a painting entitled "the Bridge." It pictures the Golden Gate Bridge from water level with the towers of the bridge itself piercing through the fog.

Three of the paintings, "Riverside, Philippines and Lagoon," are reminiscent of 17th Century British art or of the early American school. The painting "Grandma" has won acclaim in other exhibits.

Survivors include his widow, Hazel; a son, Bernard Phillips three daughters, Mrs. Becky Witt, Pearl Carralho and Mrs. Charlotte Oller, all of the East Bay; two brothers, Dave Phillips, Florida, and Maurris Phillips, New York; 17 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

MICHAEL REISGIES

Funeral serivces were held Tuesday for Michael Reisgies, 92, of San Bruno, who died April 7 in Millbrae.

Services were from Nauman and Lincoln Chapel, with inurnment at Olivet Memorial Park.

A native of Minnesota, Reisgies resided in San Bruno 20 years.

Survivors include his widow, Bertha, of Minnesota; a son, Rolland Reisgies, San Bruno; two daughters, Mrs. Alice Lippie, Glen Haven, and Mrs. Harriette Nolan, San Jose, and three grandchildren.

EDWARD N. SMITH

Edward N. Smith, 64, of 222 Lux Avenue, South San Francisco, died unexpectedly April 3 at his home.

Funeral services were held Monday from Nauman and Lincoln Chapel, with burial in Olivet Memorial Park. The Rev. Oscar Link officiated.

A native of Duluth, Minn., Smith resided in South San Francisco 35 years, and was a retired employe of the Mental Termite Corp.

Survivors include a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ida Adams, and two step-sons, Arthur and Donald Smith, South San Francisco; one grandchild, and a brother and sister in Minnesota.

NORA McINTOSH

Nora McIntosh, 72, of San Leandro, mother of Mrs. Roberta Turrentine of South San Francisco and Larry McIntosh of San Bruno, died April 2.

Funeral services were held Monday at Wilshire Funeral Home in Santa Monica. Nauman and Lincoln Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Casellini, San Leandro, and two sons, Sam and Jack McIntosh, Montclair.

Bruno Fire Station Bid

A bid of $19,994 was the low bid for construction of an addition to the San Bruno fire station at Earl Avenue and Sneath Lane.

City councilmen accepted the bid from the Thornton Construction Company at that figure, although city officials said a representative of the firm had attempted to have the offer withdrawn late Monday.

Train Kills Bruno Youth

A shortcut was blamed for the train death of a 13-year-old San Bruno boy on Friday afternoon less than 100 yards from his home.

The victim was Ross Martindale, a student at Parkside Elementary School, who lived with his parents at 730 First Avenue.

The train, loaded with homeward-bound commuters, slammed into the boy at an estimated 45 miles an hour, knocking the body a considerable distance.

Southern Pacific Engineer Orvall Evans of San Jose, said he did see the child run in front of the train and was not aware the train had struck anyone until fireman Jack Grahan, also of San Jose, yelled to him from the opposite side of the locomotive cab.

Evans had been preparing to stop at the San Bruno depot at the time of the accident and had slowed to 45 miles an hour from 60 miles an hour.

News From the Services

ADVISORY TEAM

LAM SON, Vietnam — Army Staff Sergeant Julius C. Colbert, whose wife, Betty, lives at 993 Higate Drive, Daly City, was assigned to Advisory Team 70, U.S. Army Military Assistance Command, Vietnam, near Lam Son, March 16.

IN KOREA

OSAN-NI, Korea — Sergeant Wayne R. Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Kimball of 34 San Miguel Ave., Daly City, is serving with an Aerospace Defense Command (ADC) contingent deployed to Korea. He supports the first F-106 Delta Dart fighter-interceptors using inflight refueling that have flown to critical overseas areas along with tactical air units.

The 1,400-mile-an-hour F-106s were sent from McChord AFB, Wash., to Osan Air Base as part of the buildup of U.S. forces in Korea triggered by the North Korean crisis.

Sergeast Kimball, who flew to Korea aboard a giant Military Airlift Command C-141 Starlifter, is an aircraft equipment repairman.

The sergeant is a 1965 graduate of Westmoor High School.

Bruno Claim For $25,000

A $25,000 claim against the city of San Bruno was denied and referred to the city attorney Monday night.

The claim was presented city councilmen on behalf of Ralph Shipman, who was injured two weeks ago when his motorcycle struck a cable stretched across a road leading to the Hap Beckner Shelter in the San Bruno City Park.

The cable is placed across the road nightly to halt traffic on the road.

Aviation Week Plan By Bruno Chamber

Plans for a spectacular "Aviation Appreciation Week" were unveiled Tuesday during the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce board of directors breakfast meeting at United Air Lines maintenance base cafeteria.

The third annual event is scheduled from April 28 through May 4 and, according to the Chamber Aviation Committee Chairman Lloyd Ghiselli, "will be bigger in every way this year."

High point of the week-long celebration will be the annual aviation banquet with Gen. William F. McKee, head of the Federal Aviation Administration in Washington, D.C., as guest speaker.

General McKee will fly to San Francisco International Airport especially for this event which is scheduled for May 2, 7:30 p.m., at the Green Hills Country Club in Millbrae.

Airlines serving San Francisco International Airport will prepare special displays in most downtown San Bruno business stores and banks to bring the "Aviation Appreciation" theme into the community.

The San Bruno Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring organization of the recognition week, has made arrangements for guided tours for the public through the American Airlines' automated cargo base, Pan American World Airways' flight training center, United Air Lines' giant maintenance base, and the FAA control tower at the airport.

In connection with the public tours, downtown San Bruno merchants will be giving away a free air vacation trip to Canada and weekend trips to Disneyland in a special drawing during their "Aviation Appreciation Week" promotion.

This year the Pan American World Airways will host the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce in their annual "Champagne Breakfast Flight."

Chamber board of director members and invited guests will be treated to a scenic two-hour jet sight-seeing trip around California and will be served breakfast and champagne during the flight.

The Pan Am flight will leave San Francisco International Airport at 7 a.m. on May 1, and return by 9 a.m.

Many more programs scheduled during the "Aviation Appreciation Week" will be outlined at the Chamber of Commerce board of directors meeting April 9, at 8 a.m., at the United Airlines maintenance base.

Bruno Fuchsia Meets April 12

San Bruno branch of the American Fuchsia Society will meet April 12 at 8 p.m. at Decima Allen School in San Bruno. The public is invited.

A representative of the Ortho Co. will show films and give a talk on when and how to use fertilizer in the garden. President Joseph Kusber will give a demonstration on pruning and shaping a standard fuchsia.

'COPTER' CHIEF

PLEIKU, Vietnam — Raymond W. Kahle, 19, son of William H. Kahle, 6 Westlawn Dr., Daly City, was promoted to Army specialist five March 3 while serving as a helicopter crew chief in Headquarters Battery, 4th Infantry Division Artillery, near Pleiku, Vietnam.

His mother, Mrs. Catherine P. Kahle, lives at 3503 Mission St., San Francisco.

Historical Event Topic

"One historical event in Jerusalem that has shaped much of the world's history" is to be Pastor Walter Stram's 11 a.m. message, April 14, at the Peninsula Church of Christ (Christian) in San Bruno, Angus Avenue at Masson.

July is for Girls and August is for Boys at The Mountain Camp

We're planning right now for the 1968 summer, our third. If you think your son or daughter would enjoy a couple of weeks in a relaxed, warm-hearted camp in the redwoods, it's none too soon for you to plan, too.

The Mountain Camp is secluded in 2,400 acres of Santa Cruz Mountain redwoods only an hour and a half from the mid-Peninsula. We have a lake, a trout stream, a dandy big lodge and lots of camper cabins, great food, and a program of outdoor activities that teaches something useful as well as being lots of fun. The age bracket is 8 to 14.

For our detailed brochure, write to The Mountain Camp P.O. Box 3686 Stanford, Calif. 94305 or telephone 322-7021.

BY DON

As matters now stand, Sout
San Francisco will have tw beauty pageants this year: Th official, chamber of commerce
sponsored "Miss South Sa
Francisco" event, and a riva
"Miss Industrial City" pageant produced by Dolly Drew.

Sixteen contestants in the ori ginally planned "Miss South Sa Francisco" pageant divide equally during last week's dis pute between chamber official and Mrs. Drew, and half the girls will participate in each event.

James Sargen, appointed last week to replace Mrs. Drew as director of the city's officia pagent, said the chamber se cured signed agreements from eight of the entrants at a Wednesday night tea for the contestants and their parents.

The girls who chose to remain with the chamber of commerce production will be coached by Mrs. Jerry Kelelane Matlock, a dance instructor for the San Mateo YWCA, Sargen said.

Former "Miss South San Francisco" Barbara Sams will also assist Sargen in preparing the chamber production, which has the sanction of the Fiesta
Dream Girl Pageant and the South San Francisco council.

The show will be presented
May 25 at South San Francisco
High School, as originally planned, Sargen said.

Entrants in the "Miss South
San Francisco" pageant, as of today, include Sheryl Morris,
Dorothy Lahey, Debbie Boyle,
Karen Phurman, Shirley Boyd,
Linda Stagner, Sara Pereciado, and Ramona Skola.
